NO. 288—SIXTY-THIRD YEAR

VICTORIA, BRITISH COLUMBIA, FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 18, 1921

EVENTS COMBINE TO CAUSE DELAY FOR CONFERENCE

Progress With Consideration of Far Eastern Problems Is Hindered by Illness of Ambassador Shidehara—Japan Interjects Another Factor by Requests Respecting Navy Strength.

BRITISH DELEGATES DETERMINED ON ACHIEVING SOME RESULT

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—The conference on the limitation of armaments and Far Eastern questions, which started business with a whirlwind rush, appears to be slowing up.

While the committee appointed to deal with the difficult problems of the Far East is forced to mark time for two days, owing to the illness of the Japanese ambassador, the armament division of the conference today ran up against what appears to be its first real snag. This was the demand—for in its wording it was practically a demand—of the Japanese delegation that Japan be allowed a proportion in general tonnage greater than the suggested 60 per cent of that of the two other powers, coupled with the notification that in vessels of a strictly defensive character, she might desire even to approximate that of the great navies.

The suggestions made by the British delegation regarding the United States proposals, were all of a tentative character.

GOVERNMENT HAS MAJORITY OF TWO

Administration Carries Point and Decides Royal Commission Will Investigate Head of Game Board

By a vote of twenty-two to twenty—the closest division to have hitherto been taken since the present Government took office, the Government shortly after midnight last night defeated the resolution presented on Monday by Mr. R. H. Pooley, asking for the appointment of a select committee of the House to investigate the operations of the Game Conservation Board and, more particularly, the work of Dr. Baker, chairman of the board, and, secondly, approved of the amendment brought forward by Attorney-General Farris asking that His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor be requested to name a royal commission for that purpose.

The debate upon the resolution advanced by Mr. Pooley occupied the entire evening's sitting, from 8:30 o'clock to 12:20 a.m. The Conservative opposition which supported the Pooley resolution found support from Messrs. Burdett, Guthrie, Hanes, Macdonald and Duncan, independent members, as well as from Messrs. H. G. Perry and David Whiteside, Liberals. Mr. Thomas Uphill was in the corridors but did not appear to vote, and Mr. M. B. Jackson, Liberal, was also absent.

Attorney-General Farris spoke for over two hours replying to the allegations made by Mr. Pooley on Monday last. The debate became acrimonious at times and keen interest was displayed in the proceedings by the well-filled galleries. The vote as recorded stood as follows:

In favor of the Pooley resolution: Messrs. Bowser, Jones, W. A. McKinnis, Lister, Hinchey, Hunter, Duncan, Burdett, Whiteside, Perry, Schofield, Edling, A. McDonald, Pearson, Catherwood, McRae, Guthrie, Neelands and Hanes.

Against the resolution and in favor of the amendment: Messrs. Oliver, King, Farris, Sloan, Clearhugh, Menzies, Sutherland, Anderson, K. C. MacDonald, Torsion, Patterson, Ramsey, Henniger, Ker, Ian MacKenzie, Pauline, Buckham, Barrow, Hart, Pattullo, Maclean and Mrs. Smith.

The result of the decision of the House in that the investigation will not be undertaken until after the House arises instead of an immediate inquiry which would have been held had a select committee been named.

MR. O'CONNOR DENIES
MR. MURDOCK'S CHARGE

ARNPRIOR, Ont., Nov. 17.—"I have to give his contention explicit denial, and say that on no occasion whatever did any member of the Government interfere with our attempt of such control," W. F. O'Connor, former chairman of the board of commerce, declared here tonight in replying to charges of James Murdoch, Liberal candidate in South Toronto, and former member of that board, that the Government had attempted to guide the course of that body.

Mr. Crean's Prediction

WINNIPEG, Nov. 17.—"I believe that Progressives will come into power in Canada after December 6," said Hon. T. A. Crerar here tonight. "The people," he said, "will see the present Government through on that date." The leader of the National Progressives suggested that his audience should not be shocked to hear on the evening of election day fifty Progressives had been elected in Ontario, where, he said, the new party was the Government's real opponent. They had about 15 candidates in the Maritime Provinces, and might have 30 by nomination day, declared Mr. Crerar.

V.O.N. TAG DAY

The Victorian Order of Nurses will hold their tag day tomorrow, with headquarters at the Chamber of Commerce rooms.

OTTAWA, Nov. 17.—The population of the Province of Alberta has increased from 374,662 in 1911 to 581,995 in 1921, an advance of 207,332, or 55.34 per cent, for the 10-year period, according to a bulletin issued by the census branch of the Department of Trade and Commerce to-night.

The population of the electoral district of Calgary East is 44,774; Calgary West, 49,234; Edmonton East, 54,664; Edmonton West, 70,939; Lethbridge, 37,463; Medicine Hat, 42,976.

TOLMIE CAMPAIGN STARTS TONIGHT

Hon. H. H. Stevens, Minister of Trade and Commerce, Will Speak at Capitol—Crerar Supporters Organize

Two important political events will take place tonight. The first meeting of the Progressive party in Victoria to back up the election campaign, and Why I Support It will be the theme of Mr. Stevens' address. The National Liberal and Conservative Association has arranged for a number of other able speakers to address the meeting, which will commence at 8 o'clock.

The first definite move to organize the Progressive party in Victoria to back up the election campaign, and Why I Support It will be the theme of Mr. Stevens' address. The National Liberal and Conservative Association has arranged for a number of other able speakers to address the meeting, which will commence at 8 o'clock.

Mr. Thomas Menzies, member of the Legislature for Comox, will address the meeting, which is scheduled to commence at 8 o'clock, and all supporters of Crerar and other candidates in Federal politics have been invited to attend.

The announcement that the Progressives will organize in Victoria has created a good deal of interest in the city. Officers for 1922 will be elected, and the meeting will decide if a candidate is to be nominated.

Among those spoken of as being acceptable as candidates to the Progressives of this city are Ald. A. E. Todd, Miss Helen G. Stewart, a prominent Progressive said to be close to Mr. Crerar declared yesterday that either Ald. Todd or Miss Stewart could win the Victoria seat.

INDUSTRIES MUST GET PROTECTION

Prime Minister Emphasizes Fact That Lowering of Tariff
Would Mean Direct Taxation
of Land

BOISEBAVIN, Man., Nov. 17.—Premier Meighen, in opening his speech here this afternoon, declared that he did not know how farming was to be successful when there was drought all summer and rain all fall, combined with falling prices. The West had suffered severely as a result of weather conditions, he said.

The Prime Minister reiterated his former statement that railway rates must come down, and emphasized the statement that the Government had no jurisdiction over the Railway Commission, but all indications were that rates would fall.

"No living man has any warrant to say that I favor high protection," Mr. Meighen insisted. The Government favored a tariff sufficiently high to enable Canadian industries to compete with those in the United States, and no higher.

The Premier said that if protection were removed from Canadian industry, the source from which sixty per cent of our taxation was obtained, would be removed. If Canadian industries were depleted, 110,000 employees who were now paying income tax would not pay much. "You will have a land tax then," said the Premier. "You will have it on the improved as well as the unimproved land values, because there won't be anything else on which to raise taxation. The most expensive form of taxation to collect is the land tax," he said.

In closing, the Premier once more explained his policy for the establishment of a voluntary grain pool.

Sir Henry Drayton in West York

TORONTO, Nov. 17.—Sir Henry Drayton, Finance Minister of Canada, is to be nominated candidate for West York at a Conservative convention to be held at Weston next Saturday. This was definitely decided upon at a conference of party leaders here yesterday.

BOMBAY PEOPLE WELCOME PRINCE

Enthusiastic Reception Is Accorded Royal Visitor on His Landing and Passage Through City

TOUR IS OPENED WITH GOOD PROMISE

Machinations of Ghandi and His Fellow-Agilitators Have Failed—Some Tension Found in Native Quarter.

LONDON, Nov. 17.—Reuter's correspondent with the Prince of Wales, in a long detailed dispatch, describes the reception of the Prince by the populace of Bombay when he landed and during the procession through the city. The splendid military cortege at various points along the route touched the fringes of the native bazaar, where there was tumultuous enthusiasm, unprecedented in the history of Bombay.

The route of the procession was lined with British and Indian troops. A public holiday had been declared, and all the inhabitants closed their shops and flocked into the streets to greet the Prince, whose bearing made a good impression.

The correspondent adds that although the political atmosphere in Bombay is rather tense, the tour of the Prince is considered to have opened with splendid promise.

A dispatch to The London Times from Calcutta dated Tuesday says the extremists were taking advantage of the visit of the Prince to gain further notoriety, and that they might declare a general demonstration when the Prince landed.

It added that the lower elements, inspired by unscrupulous agitators, and professing adherence to Mahatma Ghandi and the Caliphate of Workers, were likely to interfere with the plans of the Prince to gain further notoriety, and that they might declare a general demonstration when the Prince landed.

The Bombay correspondent of The London Times says the Ghandi faction had made the utmost effort to render the boycott of the Prince of Wales effective, but the only result was an overwhelming and tumultuous reception, passing all possible expectations.

ASK FASTER VESSELS TO FIGHT SMUGGLERS

SEATTLE, Nov. 17.—Seagoing launches capable of traveling 30 miles an hour and armed with one-pound rapid firing guns, will be recommended to combat liquor smugglers from British Columbia.

Announcing that they have decided to recommend the immediate equipment of such boats, prohibition enforcement authorities and customs officials say that ordinary coastguard vessels cannot compete with the smugglers for speed. Crews of the fast boats will be instructed to stop or sink any suspected craft in the Sound.

House Opposes President

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—Disregarding the expressed wish to President Harding, the House voted today, 201 to 173, to accept the Senate amendment to the bill fixing the maximum income tax at 60 per cent on incomes of $200,000 or more.

UNIONISTS APPROVE MINISTRY'S COURSE REGARDING IRELAND

LORD NORTCLIFFE EXPLAINS DISPATCH

PEKING, Nov. 17.—Lord Northcliffe, who is touring the Far East, issued a statement today explaining that his dispatch to The London Times on October 23 was not meant as an endorsement of the Canton Government's claims that it represents the Chinese people, as the dispatch evidently had been interpreted. It was merely, he declared, a quotation of Dr. Wu Ting Fang, who made those claims in an interview with the British press.

In his statement Lord Northcliffe said Dr. Wu had declared that the foreign press was inaccessible as a medium of expression by the Canton Government, and that, therefore, he (Lord Northcliffe), although not supporting the Canton Government's contentions, had offered to publish Dr. Wu's statement.

South Wellington Contest

WELLINGTON, Nov. 17.—J. W. Oakes, who entered the contest in South Wellington, claiming to be the only straight Liberal in the field, announced his retirement. This leaves Hon. Hugh Guthrie, Government, Sam Carter, Liberal, and James Slinger, Labor-U.F.O., in the field.

SPEAKS AT HOME OF PROGRESSIVES

Mr. Meighen Addresses Two Large Meetings in Brandon
—Refers Hon. Dr. Tolmie's
Presence in Cabinet

BRANDON, Nov. 17.—The city of Brandon, in which some years ago the organization of the United Farmers of Manitoba came into being, and where Hon. T. A. Crerar, Progressive leader, opened his present election campaign, tonight welcomed the Prime Minister and gave careful attention to his discussion of political issues. Two crowded meetings were addressed by Mr. Meighen. The first was held in the city hall, and long before the Premier put in an appearance the large room was filled. The second took place in the Prince Edward Hotel, just across from the city hall, and was also crowded.

Although the Prime Minister addressed the first meeting for upward of an hour, and although some interruptions might have been expected in this constituency, there was no disturbance of any kind.

The Premier said he was charged with not having enough farmer representation in Parliament. He said he did not think that business should be attached to this or any other Government on such grounds, and he went on to insist that the Minister of Agriculture, Hon. S. F. Tolmie, was one of the best farmers in the Dominion. The only way to get farmers into Parliament and the Government was for the people to send farmers of capacity to Ottawa.

There seems to be a general belief that the only way out is an appeal to the country, but there is some difference of opinion as to whether the Prime Minister will have a general election or will resign, leaving an alternative ministry to be formed, with the possibility of later dissolution of Parliament.

Extremist Speeches

LIVERPOOL, Nov. 17.—The Unionist party's attitude toward the Irish settlement negotiations, with the question of Ulster foremost, was under debate today at the great national conference of the Unionist party.

Lord Derby, who was elected president, said that he did not disguise from himself the fact that it would require any tact, and any intelligence that he possessed to keep the Conservative party together.

The main business before the conference was a resolution moved by Colonel John Gretton, member of parliament for Rutlandshire, calling on the conference to record its condemnation of the long-continued ascendancy of crime and rebellion in Ireland, and resolve that no settlement of the Irish question is acceptable which does not respect absolutely the position acquired by Ulster and provide every safeguard essential for imperial security and the protection of the loyalists in the West and South of Ireland.

Lord Farnham and General Trevellick presented the case against negotiations with the Sinn Fein on behalf of that section of the Southern Irish Unionists opposed to the policy of Lord Midleton and his party, who are in disagreement with the Ulster demand for separate dominions for North and South Ireland.

The speakers contended that "peace purchased from the Sinn Fein by the weakness of the Government" would contain no element of permanence.

Colonel Martin Archer-Shee, Unionist member of parliament for Finsbury, in endorsing the Gretton motion, said that as soon as the negotiations broke down, as they surely would, the Conservatives should leave the Unionist party to set up a Government which would really govern the country.

"I am sick and tired of a Government that is carrying out a radical policy and which is led by a radical leader," he explained.

Convention of Party Held at Liverpool Gives Overwhelming Majority in Favor of Government Continuing Efforts to Effect Settlement Through Negotiations in Conference

WAR SECRETARY STATES POSITION

Declares Ulster Is Not to Be Coerced Into Acceptance of Single Parliament—Commentators Renew Talk of Deadlock and Resignation—Ulster and Sinn Fein Attitudes

LONDON, Nov. 17.—The Unionist party delegates of the whole country at Liverpool today registered a vote even more overwhelming than the recent similar vote in the House of Commons, authorizing the Government to continue its efforts by conference to negotiate a settlement of the Irish question. Out of 2,000 delegates, not more than 100 at the most opposed the amendment recording continued confidence in the Government.

The vote followed a statement of the Government's position by Sir Laming Worthington-Evans, Secretary for War, who denied that the Ministers had offered an Ulster gagged and bound as the price of Irish allegiance to the King, and reiterated previous pledges that he would not consent to any settlement involving coercion of Ulster's assent.

Ulster, declared the speaker, should not be put under a Dublin parliament against her will.

The effect of the vote is to confirm the mandate given to Mr. Lloyd George by the House of Commons. Sir Laming Worthington-Evans' declaration indicates that Ulster has an effective veto over the whole settlement.

Talk of Deadlock
Ulster's reply to the Prime Minister's declaration was delivered today, in Downing Street this afternoon. It indicates that Ulster stands firm in the attitude she has taken and will not submit to anything considered a violation of her rights.

Complaining that the Government has failed to maintain secrecy regarding the negotiations, the Ulster representatives threaten to publish the correspondence.

BOURNEMOUTH, Eng., Nov. 17.—Mr. Lloyd George, who came to this resort for a brief rest, decided to return to London immediately, after receiving over the telephone today the reply of the Ulster representatives to the Government's latest communication on the Irish negotiations.

LIVERPOOL, Nov. 17.—Addressing a meeting of the Unionist party to-night, Mr. Austen Chamberlain, admitting that suspicious and anxieties over the Irish question could not wholly be allayed until the terms of the settlement were known, appealed to the Unionists for patience, on the ground that, while fighting could be conducted publicly, negotiations required a measure of confidence and patience.

"Two momentous conferences, one on the side of the Atlantic, are in progress," he said, "the one to bring peace to the world, the other peace to the British Isles. Give us your goodwill in both cases. I beg that you will show fair play."

URGE FAIR PLAY FOR RESIGNATION

City Council Moves to Swing
All B. C. Municipalities Into
Last Minute Fight for Justice
From Government

Sixty British Columbia municipalities were urged yesterday by the City Council to join in an organized effort to force the Provincial Government to give the municipalities "a square deal," or resign.

The Council will try to swing all the municipalities into line in a last-minute offensive against the budget proposals as laid down by Hon. John Hart, Minister of Finance. Although agreeing with the attitude of the Union of B.C. Municipalities that the Government has repeatedly ignored their representations, and has broken faith with them, the Council feels that the issues are too important to be abandoned. It will go down fighting with its colors lashed to the mast.

After the City Council had endorsed the recommendations of a special committee, composed of the Legislative Committee and the chairman of the Finance and Streets Committees, yesterday afternoon, Mayor Robert J. Porter wrote to the municipal councils of the Province, submitting copies of the resolutions passed.

"Both from a municipal standpoint and from the standpoint of a citizen of British Columbia, I feel that the existing situation in Provincial affairs is of an extremely serious nature," wrote the Mayor. "I take this opportunity of requesting that your council will join in pressing the demand, both for economies and fair play from the Government."

SUGGESTS CENTURY AS SPAN OF LIFE

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—A movement to educate the people of the world to live 100 years is suggested by Dr. Stephen Smith, 95 years old, who declared in an address to members of the American Public Health Association last night that Mosala law limiting the span of life to three-score years and ten was all wrong.

"Moses himself proved the fallacy of the law by living forty years beyond his allotted time," he said.

The normal and potential life of man, he added, was 100 years, and every child born was adapted in physical construction and function to live a century.

Common sense, he asserted, would carry people to their hundredth birthday.

"For instance," he said, "I would advise the lady who cannot digest eggs to cut them out; the man who yawns too much to walk a mile, thus pumping dead air out of the lungs and fresh air into them; and the young woman with weak ankles to change her peg-heeled and pointed-toe shoes for the sensible kind, like her grandmother wore."

Sir Lomer Gouin Gives Up Seat

QUEBEC, Nov. 17.—Sir Lomer Gouin, who is Liberal candidate in Montreal for the House of Commons, has sent in his resignation as a member of the Quebec Legislative Council. Sir Lomer was appointed to the Upper House in the summer of 1920 after he had resigned as Premier of the Province.

RESTATES RULES FOR NOMINATION

Chief Electoral Officer Outlines Procedure for Coming Election—New Feature Is Statement Showing Expenses

OTTAWA, Nov. 17.—Colonel O. M. Biggar, chief electoral officer, outlining the procedure in connection with nominations in the approaching elections, explained yesterday that candidates could be named any time before nomination day and up until two o'clock on nomination day itself. Between 12 noon and 2 o'clock, returning officers will attend at particular places to receive nominations. Candidates may withdraw from the field at any time up to the close of the polls on election day by filing a declaration in writing to that effect with their returning officer.

The formal nomination paper is prepared in a special form, and must be signed by at least ten electors, whose signatures shall be witnessed. These witnesses must make an affidavit before the returning officer that the voters who signed are qualified electors of the district in which the candidate is running. The next step is up to the candidate, and he must certify in writing that he accepts the nomination. This certificate must, in turn, be proved by a sworn affidavit handed in by the witness to the candidate's signature. If the candidate is absent from his constituency, a sworn affidavit is required to be submitted in place of the written certificate of acceptance. When nominations are handed to the returning officers they must be accompanied by $200 in gold, Dominion notes or certified cheque payable to the Receiver-General.

Forms of nomination and other necessary papers have been forwarded by the chief electoral officer to every returning officer for distribution.

A necessary appointment devolving on all candidates is that of an official agent whose duty it is to handle all election money and expenses. This agent shall make a statement to the returning officer on the form provided for that purpose within two months after the declaration of the election. The returning officer is compelled by the Dominion Elections Act to have a synopsis of these expenses printed in a local paper. If agents neglect to hand in the statement there is a possibility of the election of their candidate being set aside.

The form provides for showing the purposes for which money received and money expended, and also, under different headings, provides space for detailed statements of expenditures. This is one of the most important features of the business behind the election, and is emphasized by the fact that the present Dominion Elections Act contains six pages of detailed instructions where the old act provided two and a half.

POLITICIANS INDULGE IN STRONG LANGUAGE

SAINT CECILIA, Que., Nov. 17.—Warm passages were exchanged between Hon. R. Lemieux and L. J. Gauthier, ex-M.P., at an open-air meeting held here yesterday. Mr. Lemieux insisted that Mr. Gauthier had been a traitor to the Liberal party, comparing him with Judas Iscariot, and how the latter had hanged himself and hoped that Mr. Gauthier would not go as far as that, but would leave it to the electors of St. Hyacinthe to suspend him by their votes.

Mr. Gauthier said Mr. Lemieux was a political corpse. He declared that Mr. Lemieux and his fellow-Liberals had betrayed the true principles of the Liberal party, the principles of Laurier, to follow the Socialism of Hon. Mackenzie King.

MEET REQUESTS FOR INTERVIEWS

British Empire Delegates Take Turns in Talking With Correspondents—Question of Private Sessions Crops Up

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—Sir Robert Borden, who many times during his parliamentary career faced a heavy barrage of questions from the opposition side of the House in Ottawa, yesterday learned that a new order of questioning is in store for him.

A flood of urgent requests for interviews from the host of correspondents here for the conference on limitation of armaments led to the announcement of a plan by which members of the Empire delegation will meet the newspapermen at a stated hour daily. One delegate will be deputed to grant this official interview each day. Yesterday Mr. Balfour inaugurated the plan by meeting the correspondents at the British Embassy at six o'clock. Today Lord Lee granted an interview, and tomorrow Sir Robert Borden will be deputed to meet them.

Judging by Mr. Balfour's experience, Canada's delegate has a busy half-hour before him. The correspondents, particularly those representing the United States newspapers, are not at all shy about asking for any information they happen to desire, regardless of whether it is obviously impossible that it should be given them. At yesterday's meeting, which was attended by two hundred newspapermen, Mr. Balfour was obviously nervous, but his courtesy and cordiality completely won the regard of his inquisitors, even though they received practically nothing in the way of information. Some of the questions asked by the United States correspondents probably would have been considered impertinent at a similar gathering in the Old Country, but Mr. Balfour's tact was ever to the fore, and at the close of the interview there was a spirit of good feeling which manifested itself in a hearty round of applause.

A certain section of the United States press has started an outcry about what is termed "secret diplomacy," and is attempting to fasten on the British delegation blame for the fact that private committee sessions of the conference are being held. As a matter of fact the British delegates, so far, have been far more accessible to the press than those of any other country, and what information it is possible to give out is given by the British delegates more promptly and with better grace than by any of the others. It has been explained by representatives of the other delegations that the private sessions are absolutely necessary in order that there may be a free interchange of opinions and ideas without the embarrassment which publicity might cause in the primary stage of the discussion. The general view is that the attack upon the "secret sessions" comes very largely from a source which is entirely devoid of sympathy with the ideals for which the conference is striving.

MR. KING TALKS TO PROGRESSIVES

Condemns Idea of Government on Class or Group Lines—Further Attacks Record of Ottawa Ministry

REGINA, Sask., Nov. 17.—Addressing a large audience here last night, Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, leader of the Liberal party, warned of the danger of the Progressive movement bringing about isolation of the Middle West of Canada, and urged his hearers, before it was too late, to get together in the interest of Liberal principles. There were several interruptions, but no actual heckling.

The Liberal leader said he had considered the Progressive movement a Liberal movement, and had done his best to bring about unity between it and his own party. The organized farmers, however, had repelled such advances, and went into the fight with the declaration that they had "no use for either of the old parties."

There was talk of coalition after December 6, but said Mr. King, as he predicted a majority in the House for his party, the country was sick of coalitions, and in any case the Progressives could not expect any coalition with a party which they had deliberately sought to antagonize.

Canada, said Mr. King, needed government based on the needs of the whole Dominion, and any attempt to rule the country on the basis of the needs of any class, group or section could only lead to divisions in the state.

Mr. King charged the Prime Minister with autocracy in speaking to restrict the issue to that of protection versus free trade. Dealing with this and the charge that he had trimmed his tariff policies according to the wishes of the farmers, the Liberal leader declared there was no question of free trade in this election. His policy, he said, was one of downward revision, with the lightening of the tariff burden on implements of production in the basic industries and on the necessities of life.

The Liberal leader dealt with the matter of grain marketing, saying that the problem of the wheat board was one which needed consideration. Experts in the West were not agreed on the matter of a wheat board, but if returned to power, he would seek the best advice obtainable, and on that basis a policy which was considered in the best interests of all Canada.

Dealing again with the Progressive party, Mr. King said its supporters evidently thought more of a name than of their principles. He warned against the danger of isolation, and said that this was no time for experimenting in matters of government. If the farmers of Saskatchewan wanted a representative who understood the problems of Saskatchewan, they could choose no better man than Hon. M. W. Martin.

Mr. King said he did not wish to be understood as threatening the Progressives, but rather as giving a warning to them that if they held views in common they must seek unity before the election rather than afterward.

The Roridan tax payments and railway matters came in for considerable attention from Mr. King. In respect to the former, he stated that the Roridan Company had become the owners of companies which were paying taxes to the Government while the parent company gave promissory notes. In regard to railways, Mr. King charged that an "autocratic policy of secrecy" had been pursued. Railwaymen, he promised, would be given representation on the Canadian National Railway board if the Liberals were elected.

Mr. King criticized naval and army expenditures during after-war years and declared that the recent shipment of munitions from England to Lewis apparently had something to do with the election itself, and might prove to be the greatest scandal that was ever known.

Mr. King blamed the defeat of reciprocity largely for the lack of markets for Western products, and said that as the West suffered for lack of Western business, the perfunctory, jewelry, silk stockings and other articles for personal adornment.

The smokers poured out $1,151,000 for tobacco in all forms. Baseball fans, theatregoers, concert frequenters, and those attending concerts, paid $397,960,000.

One set of tables shows that against $18,000,000 spent for the army the people expended $34,000,000 on soda and confections, and $35,000,000 for perfumery, jewelry, silk stockings and other articles for personal adornment.

No Russian Relief Appeal
TORONTO, Nov. 17.—That no relief organization was able to help afflicted Russian people from their famine-stricken country, and that the Canadian Red Cross Society had decided it was unwise to make any appeal in Canada at this time for Russian relief, were two points in the report of the executive committee presented to the general council of the society yesterday at its meeting here.

Six Killed in Auto Crash
JOHNSTOWN, Pa., Nov. 17.—Six persons were killed here early this morning when the automobile in which they were riding crashed through the guard rails of the Woodvale Bridge spanning the Pennsylvania Railroad cut and fell to the tracks fifty feet below. According to reports received here, the car overturned as it fell, pinning the passengers beneath it.

TWIN SISTERS DRAW LOTS FOR POISONING

GENEVA, Nov. 17.—The love tragedy of twin sisters who drew lots for death by poison became known recently in the Innsbruck court, when one of them was tried for murder. She was acquitted after she told her story.

The girls, daughters of a farmer named Goldheim, fell in love with a former Hungarian officer who was unable to distinguish the girls, and courted both, thinking he always was with the same sister. The officer, when he realized the situation, asked the girls to decide which should marry him.

They solved the problem by preparing a glass of water and a glass of poison. They drew lots and the loser drank and died. When the surviving sister was arrested the officer disappeared.

The word savage is derived from the Latin word, savaticus, meaning woodman.

FRANCE DESIRES TO HELP CHINA

Is in Sympathy With Aspirations Embodied in Proposals to Conference—Would Give Up Leased Territory

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—The French attitude in a general way toward the Far Eastern proposals of China was set forth after the hour conference of Premier Briand and other members of the delegation today as follows:

First: France desires earnestly to aid China in realizing her aspirations, territorial, political and commercial.

Second: France would give up Kouang-Tcheou, which she leased from China in 1898, provided Great Britain gave up Wei-Hai-Wei and Japan yielded Shantung, leased by the Germans at the same time, and the Port Arthur peninsula.

Third: France would not be unwilling to surrender her extra-territorial privileges were other powers willing to do the same. France gave up these privileges in Japan in 1906, and was in negotiation with Turkey to give them there in 1914 when the war came. However, the French feel that extra-territoriality should be maintained until it is clear that the Chinese republic can give equal security and justice to foreigners.

Fourth: The French colony of Indo-China did not belong to China, but to Annam. Consequently Indo-China, the great French colony with 25,000,000 inhabitants, does not come in question, according to the French point of view. If, however, some question should be raised as to the rectification of the nine hundred mile Chinese frontier, the French Government would be willing to discuss the boundary.

Fifth: France approaches the discussion of Far Eastern questions in sympathy with Japan's need for expansion and for raw material. The French delegation desires under all circumstances to take a conciliatory and pacific role.

Sixth: France is for open dealings of the powers with China, and against any secret negotiations.

The subject of spheres of influence beyond Indo-China does not seem to be a serious one, because the policy of spheres of influence was replaced more than ten years ago by the policy of the consortium of powers.

Admiral Baron Kato, on behalf of the Japanese delegation to the Washington conference, today asked and received from the heads of the delegations of the nine participating powers a delay of several days to allow examination of the Far Eastern proposals submitted yesterday by China.

Heads of the delegations of the nine powers participating in discussion of Far Eastern questions at a meeting today decided to proceed first with the consideration of problems relating to China before entering upon other Far Eastern questions. The other questions, it was decided, will be taken up in the order listed by the tentative agenda suggested some time ago by the American Government.

OTTAWA, Nov. 17.—The grand total of Canadian trade for the month of October, 1921, amounted to $140,774,491 as compared with $234,917,037 in October, 1920.

Exports of domestic merchandise during October, this year, had a value of $78,841,052, as against $113,341,471 in October, last year. The value of domestic exports was $129,348,256 and foreign exports $11,748,190.

Domestic merchandise exports during the seven months ending October 31 were valued at $418,618,812, and foreign merchandise at $2,532,514, as against exports of domestic merchandise to the value of $678,728,392 and foreign of $14,881,919 for the similar period of 1920. Imports during the first seven months of 1921 amounted to $438,249,612, against $818,742,228 in 1920. Duty collected during 1921 amounted to $8,355,373, as compared with $12,755,261 for the 1920 period.

"BLUEBEARD" SCORES POINT IN HIS TRIAL

VERMONT, Nov. 17.—When the trial of Henri Landru, called the "Bluebeard of Gambais," adjourned yesterday, the prosecution had acknowledged that it was basing its case on circumstantial evidence alone in charging that Landru was guilty of numerous murders.

Landru was exultant over the disappearance of women in Paris, he turned to the prosecutor and said: "I can point out 150 women taken from the morgue and buried in Potiers' Field each year during 1913, 1916, 1917 and 1918."

WILL STRIVE FURTHER FOR RATE REDUCTION

VANCOUVER, Nov. 17.—The fight for the equalization of freight rates will enter a new phase Friday, when a joint meeting of the Boards of Labor of Greater Vancouver, Burraby, New Westminster, the Canadian Manufacturers' Association and the British Columbia Manufacturers' Association will be held to discuss the next steps to be taken.

The board feels that a successful fight has been put up for the removal of the discrimination in rates against British Columbia, but in order that nothing should be left undone to achieve final success, British Columbia's case may have to be still further urged before the Railway Commission when it sits in Ottawa.

DISPUTE ABOUT
COST OF LIVING

Messrs. Murrin and Cottrell Take Different Views of Labor Gazette Figures in Arguing B.C.E.R. Case

VANCOUVER, Nov. 17.—Suggestions that the B.C.E.R. and the employers' association were exerting an undue influence on the comparative reports of the cost of living submitted by the fair wage officer here to the day's session of the conciliation board which is considering the request of the B.C.E.R. for a 15 per cent reduction in the men's wages.

"If this is so, then the Labor Gazette is not worth the paper it is printed on," declared W. H. Cottrell, who represented the men.

The argument arose over the tables submitted by the company to show that the cost of living had decreased, and consequently the men's wages should show a corresponding reduction. These figures were supposed to have been taken from The Labor Gazette, which both parties had previously agreed were a correct basis to work on.

Mr. Cottrell to the contrary in figures caused Mr. Cottrell to inquire of W. G. Murrin how he arrived at them.

It was then that Mr. Murrin explained that the company always put the figures from the fair wage officer here before they were published at Ottawa, an arrangement having been made with him by the employers' association that this could be done so that a proper check might be made, in order to keep out any possible inaccuracies.

"The Government is perfectly aware that we do this," said Mr. Murrin, "and I am willing to guarantee that the figures are absolutely correct."

Recalling the old adage about statistics being made to show anything that it is desired, the best part of the morning was given up to arguing over various tables and highly-colored charts.

Mr. Cottrell maintained that they meant one thing and Mr. Murrin something quite different.

The decision was finally put up to the board.

One argument against the men's wages being reduced forward by Mr. Cottrell was that the men suffered from occupational diseases.

NEED SHIPYARDS FOR REPAIRING

U.S. Navy Officers Comment on British Suggestion as to One Establishment — No Proposal for Scrapping

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—The suggestion that each of the naval powers retain at least one naval building yard capable of turning out one ship a year does not appear to be understood by American naval officers particularly familiar with construction problems. There was no suggestion in the American limitation proposals that any yards be scrapped, and so far as concerns navy yard facilities in this country, they will be needed, it is said, in the maintenance and repair of the retained fleet.

At present the United States has several navy yards equipped to build capital ships. It has not been contemplated here that it would be necessary under the reduction programme to scrap the equipment of these ships and building docks. Some of the machinery would not be needed, of course, for repair work, and would be idle; but the bulk of the government plants in each case would be constantly in use in keeping up the eighteen battleships to be retained by the United States. It was said. These ships, the newest in the navy, are in many cases now approaching the point where regular overhaul programmes are necessary to keep them in first-class shape.

If the British suggestion, a wholly informal one as yet so far as known, has to do with providing means for hearing the advancement of naval engineering knowledge during the proposed ten-year holiday, there is no

CITY OF VICTORIA SHOULD NOT CRITICIZE

Cowichan's Member Holds That This Community Cannot Well Condemn Government for Extravagance

Declaring that in view of the financial position of the City of Victoria and the record of its administration, the City Council can, with little grace, criticize the Government for its financial administration, Mr. Kenneth Duncan, Independent member for Cowichan, in contributing his share to the Budget Debate in the Legislature yesterday afternoon, quoted figures which, he asserted, showed that Victoria's record has not been such as to warrant the city fathers indulging in criticism of the Government.

The member for Cowichan dealt at length with the municipal situation, declaring that the bulk of the time of the House was being taken up with party squabbles rather than business. The municipal difficulties may be the result of extravagance in the past, but the fact was, a situation existed which had to be met, he said, and he quoted figures to show that in 1911 the cost of general administration of the municipalities was but $161,000, and in 1920 over a million. Expenditures on current account had increased from $740,000 to over nineteen millions. The total bonded indebtedness of the municipalities is $98,539,000, of which outlays on local improvements total $21,432,000, or 35 per cent; waterworks, $13,147,000, or 18 per cent; and schools, $2,998,000. The result of this expenditure had been to increase the per capita debt from $146 in 1911 to $227 in 1920.

Municipal Outlays
He quoted figures to show that of the $22,000,000 invested in public utilities, $13,000,000, represented utilities operated at a loss, last year, of $1,275,000, showing that these utilities which were laid down on a revenue-producing basis are being operated at a heavy loss. Forty-two municipalities owned and operated public utilities with a debt charge of $7,193,000. Twenty-one own and operate lighting plants, and of these only eleven are operating at a profit. Other figures quoted by the member covered other utilities. These losses meant a direct charge upon the ratepayers to make up the deficit.

In 1911 tax arrears were $895,000; in 1920 they were over eight millions. Reverted lands taken back by the municipalities at tax sale aggregated $13,802,000 in assessed value, representing over $4,000,000 in arrears of taxes. Sinking funds are $8,000,000 short, and of that, about one per cent, or $554,000, are confined to four municipalities.

The City of Victoria, the member for Cowichan said, has a bonded indebtedness of over eighteen millions for a population of about 40,000, compared with $7,000,000 in 1911. It is short in its sinking funds by over $2,000,000. He did not desire to criticize the city, but he held that the members of the City Council were in no position to criticize the Legislature for extravagance.

In dealing with the taxation situation, Mr. Duncan strongly argued in favor of the recommendations of the Minister of Finance that improvements should be taxed, declaring that exemption of taxation on improvements was a glaring injustice. Thirty-four out of the sixty-one municipalities of the Province were taxing improvements, and all taxation reports, which the Government has had before in recent years, opposed exemption of improvements.

Reason for Complaint
Mr. Duncan felt the municipalities had some reason to complain against the Government in that while some additional sources of revenue had been given to the municipalities, the Government had imposed additional taxation for its own needs. He questioned if the municipalities would exercise the power to impose the general property tax in view of the general objection to the proposed impost, though he felt that in the cities there was justice in imposing such a tax in view of services rendered by the municipalities. He held the present system of initiating local improvements was wrong, as in many cases such works were undertaken when the ratepayers could not object. He favored the suggestion of the Minister of Finance that municipalities should adopt the system of serial bonds, or that they should have the effect of compelling them to keep up annual payments, and he was emphatic in his declaration that there should be some supervising authority, a local Government board, to control municipal expenditures.

On the point of education, Mr. Duncan considered the Government might increase its grants in proportion to the increased cost met by the municipalities, and in regard to the educational system in the rural districts he held that the number of pupils per teacher, now placed at a minimum of forty under the present Act, should be reduced to at least thirty. This would result in an added outlay of $90,000, but would give the opportunity for pupils in those districts securing an ordinary graded school education. He held that the Province was not justified in maintaining a University in view of the necessity for meeting demands for education in the rural districts.

Speaks for Farmers
Mr. Duncan also put in a plea for the farmers to protect them from the depredations of wild game, and thought that an amendment might be introduced which would give them greater protection or that a portion of the fees secured from hunters could be put into a fund to meet compensation claims.

As for the Pacific Great Eastern, the member for Cowichan was in favor of disposing of the property to any party on the best possible terms. Failing this, he would be in favor of closing down the line entirely so as to eliminate the annual deficit on operating. There was no reason, he claimed, why the people should be forced to meet such deficits.

TELLS WHY BAKERIES INVADE HOME KITCHEN

Housewives Realize They Save Labor and Money for Them, Mr. W. C. Shelly Tells the Rotarians

Victoria, in common with other cities throughout Canada and the United States, is leaning more and more on the commercial bakeries for its supply of bread and less on the home kitchen. Rotarians were told yesterday by Mr. W. C. Shelly, president of Shelly Brothers, operating a chain of bakeries in Vancouver, Victoria, New Westminster and Nanaimo, and president of the Vancouver Rotary Club.

Members of the Rotary Club were the guests of the Shelly Four X organization yesterday, their weekly luncheon being held in the airy, sunlit factory of the company on Prior Street. Incidentally all attendance records were shattered, the big flour storage room, cleared for the occasion, with two long tables extending along its complete length, being jammed by Rotarians and visitors. The luncheon was for the kind that will be talked about for a long time. Something was going on all the while, and the Rotary orchestra under Benedict lently helped in keeping things lively.

Before Mr. Shelly rose to tell Rotarians about the bread factory of today, he introduced to the audience that Will Shelly was the man who originated the "Follow the Birds" slogan. As a token of appreciation he presented the Four X chief with what he described as a Victoria canary—a squawking bantam rooster in a parrot cage. When Mr. Down was half way down the side the bottom of the cage dropped out and the so-called canary made a desperate nose dive under a table, from which it was retrieved by gallant young man belonging to Tighe & Wheeler's catering staff. The presentation was then completed with due solemnity, but whether "the bird" will follow its brand new master to Vancouver was not stated.

Most Complete on Continent
I want to tell you that, for the size of the city, the plant you are now in is the most complete on the continent," said Mr. Shelly, and after inspecting the shop from basement to top floor the Rotarians were ready to admit that he was right. They witnessed the process of modern bread making, and with the aid of some amusing anecdotes of his experiences twenty-five years ago in St. Catharines Mr. Shelly made an impressive comparison of the methods of the past and of today.

The visitors saw the big mixer, which handles 1,000 pounds of dough at a time. They saw the steel troughs in the old days they were wooden—and the rounding, proving and moulding machinery where the loaves are weighed and shaped for the ovens. The Shelly ovens, they were told, are of the latest continuous baking type. The ones in use here cost $20,000. The Shelly Brothers have invested $130,000 in bakers' ovens alone.

"Home bread making is going out of fashion," said Mr. Shelly, and added that men were beginning to realize that they couldn't expect their wives to "look like an angel and work like the devil at the same time." "Eliminating labor isn't the only consideration," he said. "We can compete with home baking in cost. Bread is the cheapest article of food on the market today. We furnish the material, baking and delivery, and an eighteen-ounce loaf for eight and a half cents. It is pretty hard to beat that, and housewives throughout the country have found it out. That explains why bread making as an industry has climbed within ten years from eighteenth place to seventh place in the United States and Canada."

Revolutionizing Industry
Mr. Shelly told how up-to-date methods and high production had revolutionized the industry when he cited the case of Nanaimo.

"Before we established in Nanaimo," he said, "four bakeries were operating there, producing 1,400 loaves a day and selling at a price 25 per cent above Vancouver. None of the bakeries was strong enough to buy out another plant, so we went in and bought up the four. Today we are producing 5,000 loaves a day and at a lower price. That is an instance of created business. Competitors didn't suffer."

"The same is true of Victoria. In a sense, we haven't attempted to monopolize, and our biggest competitor has just as many teams on the road as they used to have before we came in. Only the bakeries giving inferior service have fallen behind. We are making 250,000 loaves in Victoria every month."

Mr. Shelly pointed out that a laboratory was maintained in connection with the bakery and that all flour and other ingredients were tested prior to use. The organization was complete with its own blacksmiths, woodworkers, painters, machinists, carpenters and printers. Altogether the company employed 289 persons.

Mr. H. G. Bull, local manager, and a Rotarian, introduced other officials of the company, Messrs. William Martin, sales manager, Vancouver; Mr. John Angus, local superintendent; and Mr. Percy Cowman, manager at Nanaimo.

RETAIL MERCHANTS ADDRESS MEMBERS

Letter Protesting Against Personal Property Tax Is Sent to Members of Legislative Assembly

A copy of a letter from the Victoria branch of the Retail Merchants' Association of Canada was handed yesterday to every member of the Provincial Legislature, calling attention to the opposition of the retail merchants of the Province to the Personal Property Tax. It is an answer from the retail merchants of the Province, and particularly the local association, to the question touched in the Budget speech as to whether merchants should pay for police and fire protection.

Referring to the relief which it is proposed to give to the municipalities in matters of education, the members of the Legislative Assembly are reminded that, inasmuch as education is a service to individuals, it is individuals who should pay for it in proportion to their ability to do so. It is obviously unfair that business, as such, should be required to pay for education. Business does not go to school. It may be argued that the children of business men go to school, and this is true. In reply, we would say that the retailers of this Province are prepared to pay for the service rendered to their children in this way upon the same basis as every other citizen should be required to pay, which should be through a tax upon his income.

Distributing Burden
 Continuing the letter to the members of the Legislature says, "The merchants do not wish that the cost of educating the children of the cities should be borne entirely by the people who are receiving the direct benefit. They desire that the burden should be distributed in as equitable a manner as possible over the whole community. They do not deny that they receive a special benefit from the fire and police departments but they readily share the cost of education, they also believe and know that the rest of the community are equally ready and willing to share the cost of fire and police protection." It is felt by the merchants of the city that the Personal Property Tax cannot be logically defended from any point of view. The only basis they declare, for taxation is ability to pay, and they have gone on record as being in favor of an equitable income tax.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Owing to unavoidable circumstances the marriage arranged between Miss Innes and Mr. C. Denton Holmes has been indefinitely postponed.

Miss E. Forsyth, of Vancouver, is a visitor in this city.

HEADS THAT ACHE AND PAIN

It is hard to drag along with a head that aches and pains all the time. In nine cases out of ten, persistent headaches are due to poisonous blood, the blood being rendered impure through some derangement of the stomach, liver or bowels, but no matter which organ is to blame, the cause must be removed before permanent relief can be obtained.

BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS
 which has been on the market for the past forty-five years, removes the cause of the headache by starting the organs of elimination acting freely, and when the impurities are carried off from the system, purified blood circulates in the brain cells, and the aches and pains vanish.

Miss Clara Murphy, Centre Dumbar, Ont., writes:—"My system was greatly run down and my blood out of order. I suffered a great deal from severe pains in my head which made me feel very miserable. After having tried other remedies I purchased a bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters, and was very glad to notice decided improvement in my health. I took another bottle and it has done wonders for me. I am now in good health and I can say it is a wonderful remedy."

FUGITIVES ARE STILL FREE FROM POLICE

Malone Leaves Letter for Superintendent Farrant Promising to Lead Straight Life if Not Apprehended

Police officials last night were out scouring the country in a further search for the two escaped prisoners from the Wilkinson Road Mental Hospital, but up to the time of going to press no further discoveries as to the probable whereabouts of the fugitives were made. During the day several clues of a more or less exciting nature were followed, but in every case when they were run down, they proved to be false.

The Provincial police are leaving nothing undone that will help to recapture the men. Every possible avenue of escape from the Island has been watched closely ever since the discovery of the breakaway. People with launches have been warned to keep a lookout for the men, and it is thought by the police that they cannot possibly get off the island.

 Saylor A. Malone left a letter in the pocket of Guard John Walter, in which he conveyed his regrets to Granby Farrant, the superintendent of the institution for leaving him without a farewell. It contained six pages, and read in part as follows:

"I am sorry to have to carry out this, but our plans were made, and I had to go through with it. I am fully convinced that I am being made the goat." (Here he named his partners in the Vancouver robbery in which he had a share) "and I will relieve the authorities of the responsibility of discharging me. If I make good my escape I will try and lead a straight life. I will clear out and make good in another place, and then send for my wife and baby. I hope you do not feel hard on me."

The letter was tucked into the guard's pocket and was full of similar arguments, and revealed the fact that Malone thought his two partners in the $25,000 Vancouver robbery had turned on him. He was still being held pending trial which had been continued from the last session to the present one, and then again postponed.

The evidence is all in favor of the theory that the two men had planned their escape for some time and that they were ready for the break when the time came. Provincial police are of the opinion that unless they have accomplices in the sensational escape they will soon be heard from, as they will have to secure food before long.

 Saylor A. Malone left a letter in the pocket of Guard John Walter, in which he conveyed his regrets to Granby Farrant, the superintendent of the institution for leaving him without a farewell. It contained six pages, and read in part as follows:

"I am sorry to have to carry out this, but our plans were made, and I had to go through with it. I am fully convinced that I am being made the goat." (Here he named his partners in the Vancouver robbery in which he had a share) "and I will relieve the authorities of the responsibility of discharging me. If I make good my escape I will try and lead a straight life. I will clear out and make good in another place, and then send for my wife and baby. I hope you do not feel hard on me."

The letter was tucked into the guard's pocket and was full of similar arguments, and revealed the fact that Malone thought his two partners in the $25,000 Vancouver robbery had turned on him. He was still being held pending trial which had been continued from the last session to the present one, and then again postponed.

This little bit of advice may help you to regain your Health, Strength and Vitality

Thousands of people suffer from nervousness. They are run down and miserable without knowing the reason why.

They do not stop to think that much of their trouble may be caused by drinking tea and coffee which contain the drugs, thein and caffeine. When you over-stimulate the system for any period of time, the result may be nervousness with its many accompanying ills. You may fail to sleep properly and your sleep does not refresh you as it should.

Postum, made from scientifically roasted cereals, will help you to overcome all these conditions. For it contains only healthful substances, instead of drugs, as are found in tea and coffee.

Postum helps build sound nerve structure, by letting you get sound, restful sleep.

In flavor, Postum is rich and satisfying. In fact there are many people who prefer Postum for its savory flavor alone.

Order Postum from your grocer today. Serve this rich, fragrant beverage for the family. See how the children will like it, and how much better everybody will sleep at night.

Postum comes in two forms: Instant Postum (in tin) made instantly in the cup by the addition of boiling water. Postum Cereal (in packages of larger bulk, for those who prefer to make the drink while the meal is being prepared) made by boiling for 20 minutes.

MONTREAL, Nov. 17.—At a meeting of the Quebec Football Association here last night, President Mitchell stated in regard to the Dominion Football Association financial situation that developments are expected from the course of action decided on at the special meeting last week, but that sufficient time had not elapsed yet to receive a reply. INSIDE STORY OF SOCCER TOUR OUT

Scottish Experts Were Well Paid for Their So-Called Missionary Work—Little Profit Likely to Be Shown

That the "missionary" tour of the Scottish footballers through Canada last summer was not that kind of a tour at all, and that the Dominion Football Association found it necessary to pay the Old Country professionals for their entire trip across the country, and that had not this proposal been accepted the players would have returned home from Halifax, is revealed by the publication of the reports of President Dan MacNeil and Secretary Roy of the D.F.A., presented at the annual meeting a few months ago, but published now for the first time.

Billy Fenton, soccer expert of The Toronto Telegram, comes to bat with the inside story of the tour, and the report of the D.F.A. officials explains fully how the money was lost. Footballers throughout the country may now be prepared for the forthcoming financial statement by perusing the official reports of the D.F.A. leaders. In the first place it ought to be clearly understood that when President MacNeil and Secretary Roy spoke about the tour having turned out a "million-dollar proposition," they used the phrase in figurative sense only. Again, when reference was made to the loss of $7,500 over the United States and of the tour, trickery on the part of U.F.A. officials was never suggested, but mention was made of the unfortunate fact that the big games in the States were staged on public grounds and the authorities could not turn back any who desired to view the game without paying for the privilege.

Success in Canada

"As far as the returns of the game in the Dominion are concerned, these showed a financial success," President MacNeil stated in his address to the D.F.A. delegates. "But, unfortunately, we were forced to draw up a contract with the Scottish players to tour the United States. I can assure you we did this in the best interests of all, and we guaranteed $2,100 per game, which I do not think was very much of a guarantee for a team of the calibre of the Scottish players. We also agreed to pay travelling expenses. Six games in the United States were to be played, which brought our liability up to $12,600, to be met out of the receipts returned to us. If this association had received money according to the number of people who attended the games we would certainly have been in a good financial position, but unfortunately, due to some reason or another, for which Mr. Roy and myself are not to blame—in some cases there were 7,000 people present—in one case we got the handsome sum of $1,700. You will find that instead of the U.S.F.A. paying what they ought to have paid for this team, the D.F.A. was responsible for paying for missionary work in the United States of America. The tour in the Dominion was reported to be 'missionary,' but when you are called to the cross in the city of Halifax for $300 per man and to ensure the players a return of $11,000 each, while they were there—well, I had to knuckle down to them. We offered them five games in the Dominion on the same terms as those entered into for the U.S.F.A. games, but they refused it."

Was Hardly Credible
The D.F.A. really believed the statement that this team was coming out only for expenses. In Halifax they asked for $5 per week for partial disbursement. We did not ask the U.S.F.A. for a $1,000 guarantee. That was all we could get. We asked for a $2,000 guarantee, next for a $3,000 guarantee and as we were compelled to take the team into the United States we had to accept $1,000. This was the only sum signed at Winnipeg on the return journey. They had us in the hollow of their hands at Halifax. Secretary Dave Roy said: "This team wanted to go back, and said they would go back unless certain conditions were fulfilled. This team

On Monday the Princess Pats, who are at present leading the league, will play the Machine Gunners, who are at the reverse end. The league leaders should not have much trouble in defeating the tailenders, but surprises are quite common in soccer these days. VANCOUVER SELECTS "REP" RUGBY TEAM

VANCOUVER, Nov. 17.—The selection committee of the Vancouver Union tonight named the following players to meet Victoria in the McKeehan Cup game at Brockton Point on Saturday: Fullback, Gooden; three-quarters, Tyrwhitt, Mackin, Hunter, Winch; five-eighths, Lord; halves, Marshall, Annance; forwards, Vancouver, C. Clarke, Decker, Hayles, Grievess, Stewart, D. Clarke. "G.H." Lewis is the selection for spare three-quarters, and A. Lord for the forward division.

did not come altogether on a missionary effort. They fulfilled their obligations. They gave the game a boost, but charged us all the way. We turned over a proposition of approximately $100,000. We were compelled to pay these men $10,000 in Canada and $12,600 in the United States, and at the benefit game in Vancouver we gave $100 to each man. We paid $25,000 in cold cash and were compelled to do it. If the delegates had been taken into our confidence they could not have done anything better. The deficit in the United States amounted to $7,500.

"Our fundamental mistake was in not referring to the council, the request to deposit $10,000 in a Scottish bank before the team left, and the request for first-class boat and rail accommodation in Canada. If we had done so there would not have been any tour. More, the players were told that if the 'gates' in the States amounted to over $5,000 they would not be forgotten. . . . We made money in Canada. We were paid $100,000 in cold cash, a thing I did not know would be necessary until they came here. . . . We paid them, we were forced to pay them, and I don't care if the whole council had been there they would have had to pay them or send them back home again, which I do not think would have been in the best interests of the game."

SOCCER GAME ENDS IN ONE-ALL DRAW

Artillery and Departmental Corps Play Indecisive Match in Garrison League—Pats Still Undeclared

Playing on a wet field and with a soggy ball was to the disadvantage of the Departmental Corps in their game yesterday with the Artillery, in the Garrison soccer league, which ended in a one-all draw. Play was fairly even from the start, with the Departmental Corps scoring first in the eighth minute. The Artillery, who were slightly the better of the two teams at half-time, there was no score. About ten minutes after half-time Wilcox, the Artillery half-back, missed a good chance for scoring when he had only the goalkeeper to beat, but he placed his shot over the bar. This gave the Artillery men confidence and about five minutes later they scored from a nice pass from Buxton, putting his side one up.

This made the opposing team wake up, and about three minutes later the Departmental Corps scored a scramble in front of their opponent's goal. Weir, the Artillery goalie, who was doing good work throughout, especially in the first half, saved once, but the ball hit the opposing forward's back and rolled in for their only tally. T. Watt, G. Ward and Grimes played a good game for the Departmental Corps, and Pocock, Gibson and Anderson were the best men for the Artillery. Referee Paulsen handled the game in very satisfactory manner.

The teams took the field as follows: Artillery—Weir; Anderson and Cobbert; Davies, Gibson and Willcott; White, Zwinger, Gale, Buxton and Pocock. Departmental Corps—Swift; Grimes and S. Watt; Ward, Wyllie and Daglish; Sharcott, Daglish, T. Watt, Kennedy and Hutchinson.

The league standing is now as follows:

P. W. L. D. Pts.
P.P.C.L.	3	3	0	6
Departmental Corps	4	2	1	5
Artillery	4	2	1	5
Machine Gunners	3	0	0	3

CHEMINUS BASKETBALL

CHEMINUS, Nov. 14.—Very enthusiastic crowds witnessed three games of basketball last week which took place in the Recreation Hall on Tuesday night. The Cowichan Merchants and the Seaside Runner teams came up from Duncan and played the local senior and junior teams. The games were fast and clean. The visitors lost both by scores of 24 to 27, junior game; 41 to 34, senior game. On Saturday night Victoria's Belmont team visited Cheminus and the best game of this season took place. The half-time score was 21 to 11 in favor of Belmont. During the second half they were very fast, but good and clean play. The visitors won by a score of 39 to 20. Very enjoyable dances and supper followed the games, and Mrs. E. Watt's three-piece orchestra played excellent dance music.

Hoppe Is Only Player
To Remain UndefeatedNOTED RIFLE SHOT
DIES IN THE EASTCapt. McMicking, Brother of Late R. B. McMicking, Had International Reputation as MarksmanMrs. R. B. McMicking has sent to The Colonist particulars of the death of Capt. McMicking, a brother of the late R. B. McMicking. Capt. McMick-ing was well known to many people here, either by reputation or in person. The following is from The Niagara Falls Gazette:"Early in the '70s Capt. McMick-ing mastered the art of rifle shooting, attending his first rifle competition on the range at Chippewa in 1874, when he captured first prize. In 1876
he attended the Ontario Provincial Rifle Association's annual meeting on Rideau range for the first time, and from that date attended each successive annual meeting of both Provincial and Dominion Associations up to and including 1892."He enjoyed the enviable reputation of having made a record for Canada on the Queen's Ranges with the Snider-Enfield rifle, in the Tai-Brassey match at the annual meeting of the Province of the Ontario Rifle Association held in Toronto, August 22, 1892. His score was 21, 23, 34, total 58 points. The highest previous score was 57.

On Bixley Team

"As a member of the Canadian Rifle Team, annually sent by the Dominion of Canada Rifle Association to England, he attended the National Rifle Association meetings, held at Bixley Ranges, July 17-18, 1891, and gained Wales' Prize. At the Dominion of Canada Rifle Association's annual meeting on Rideau range, in the Tai-Brassey match, which was a badge and $100. His score was 23 over the Queen's Ranges. In this match he used a Turner-Snider-Enfield rifle.Again in the Province of Quebec Rifle Association's annual meet, held on St. Charles Point ranges, Montreal, August 2, 1897, at a special 500-yard range match, he won first prize with the Snider-Enfield rifle. The following day he won the Martini-Henry rifle competition in Montreal, which was a special prize for a 400-yard match. All of these with scores of other valuable prizes won at different times and places in Canada and elsewhere, gave Capt. McMicking a national reputation as a rifle shot equalled by few. Seven times he won a place on the English team which is annually sent to England by the Dominion Rifle Association. He accepted three times—1888-'91-'92. His efforts in the art of rifle shooting and his success was a benefit to others. Many young men here received valuable information and shooting requisites from him."Capt. McMicking came of United Empire Loyalist stock. His grandfather, Thomas McMicking, who came from Scotland to America, taking up land on the west branch of the Delaware River, in New York, fought for the British during the Revolutionary War, and came to Canada as United Empire Loyalist in 1781. He was given Crown land in Queenston. On this journey from the banks of the Delaware to the banks of the Niagara, he and the rest of the family were taken prisoners by the Indians. Some of the other prisoners killed some of the Indian guards and escaped. The chief of the tribe demanded a life for a life, and each one had to run a gauntlet for his life chased by an Indian warrior, armed with a toma-hawk and scalping knife; the distance was about a half mile. A younger Indian took up the chase, but Thomas McMicking outfooted him. At the rise of a hill the Indian was near enough to inflict a serious scalp wound on the back of his head with a tomahawk."The grandfather served with the British troops during the war of 1812-
'14, and died in 1830 at Queenston.

Born at Stamford

"Capt. George McMicking was born in the township of Stamford in 1849.
He spent his early life at home on the farm, and was educated at the public and grammar schools, and graduated from a business college in 1873. He was imbued with a military spirit when a young lad, and enlisted in the 13th Infantry Battalion at Clifton (now Niagara Falls) in 1863 as a private under command of Capt. Sydney Barnett, of this city. He was promoted to the rank of corporal of No. 1 Company of the 44th Battalion in 1874, under command of the late Capt. Hiram Bender, in 1877 he was made a sergeant-major, and in 1878 received his commission as lieutenant. After serving as a commissioned officer for eighteen years he was placed on the retired list of officers, but always took a deep interest in military affairs. He was instrumental in procuring the first and only set of colors of the 44th Bat-HOPPE IS ONLY PLAYER

WITH WILD DUCKSLord Grey of Fallodon presided at the annual meeting of the Berwick-shire Naturalist Association recently and gave an address in the collection of wild waterfowl which he has reared at Fallodon for 37 years. These comprise 10 kinds of British and 13
of foreign ducks.The British birds are: Mallard, widgeon, pintail, garganey, shoveller, teal, tufted duck, pochard, red-crested pochard, and white-eyed pochard.
The foreign birds are: Spotted-bill, duck, wood duck, mandarin, Chiloe widgeon, Chilean pintail, Ba-hama pintail, Chilean teal, rosybill duck, rufous-tailed duck, blue-winged teal, Brazilian teal, Japanese teal, and versicolor teal.For the purpose of observation the most striking distinction, Lord Grey said, was between those birds which undergo the "eclipse" changing the color of their plumage from brilliant to dull-hue in the breeding season, and those which do not. The mandarin drake and the Carolina wood drake are two of the most brilliant.
Anyone without knowledge of birds would hardly believe that the drake and duck had any relationship, but about the end of May and beginning of June the drakes lose their brilliance and assume a dark color like the females. Although this is the rule generally speaking among British ducks, it is not the rule with ducks all the world over, or even in the same species. Where the drake has an eclipse, he pays no attention to the female when the brood is hatched.
For instance, the pintail, an early breeding bird, sometimes at Fallodon brought a brood on to the water when the drake was in his brilliant plumage, but the drake took no notice of the brood whatever. But with the Chilean pintail, where there was no eclipse, the drake went with the duck and brood and took as much trouble in rearing the young as a cock partridge does with his young. He had asked a friend who was going to South America to observe whether this characteristic existed in the wild state, and he had been informed that it does.

From Nest to Water

Dealing with the actual breeding of the different species, Lord Grey mentioned an interesting incident in connection with a Carolina or North American wood duck, which selected as her nesting place an old elm tree about 300 yards from the water. The hole in the tree was 21 feet from the ground, and, being anxious to learn how the duck got the young brood down, Mr. Henderson, his gardener, kept close watch at the time when he thought the brood was due to hatch out. Presently the duck flew down from the hole into the grass, and began calling; then one by one the little ducklings came to the edge of the hole and fell to the ground. When measured, the nest was found to be two feet below the hole. For the newly-hatched birds to climb that distance, to fall 21 feet and then follow their mother 300 yards to water, was, he thought, a tremendous tribute to the energy of nature. He had seen it stated that when the common wild duck nested above the ground the mother carried the young down, but this incident in the case of a bird whose natural nesting place was a hole in a tree rather went to dis-prove that. "I won't say it is impossible," he continued, "because I have seen a young cuckoo, naked, helpless, and apparently unable to stand in the nest, and when I have put a newly-hatched bird in beside it I have seen that same cuckoo push the bird from the nest. No one who has seen that does will say that anything in nature is incredible."

Last of Versicolor Teals

The versicolor teal had, he believed, been bred at no other place in this country than Fallodon, and it died out there under peculiar circumstances. At one time he had ten birds, but six proved to be drakes.
He was left with three pairs, one of which he exchanged for another rare species. The duck of another pair died, and the other pair were killed by foxes, leaving him with two drakes.
Two he sent to the Zoological Garden and another he sent to Kew to be mated with a female there, but in

HEARTY APPROVAL AGAIN ACCORDED

"The Voice From the Minaret"
 Meets With Spontaneous
 Admiration—"Her Destiny"
 Presented Tonight

The performance of "The Voice From the Minaret" was repeated at the Royal Victoria last night to another most enthusiastic audience, and after the last curtain Miss Lohr again came forward to answer to an insistent demand and thanked the audience for their hearty appreciation. While in numbers nothing like that of the previous evening, the audience was not lacking in its expressions of approval.

As on the previous evening the intensely dramatic character of the play gave Miss Lohr ample opportunity to reveal her emotional powers, which she did with all her fine distinction of artistic appreciation.

This evening the bill is "Her Destiny," a translation of "L'Inconnu," by Mr. Horace Annesley, whose adaptation of it was approved by its author.

The play is a profound social study, thoroughly original in its plot. It attracted the attention of Miss Lohr who was quick to realize its possibilities, and suggested to Mr. Annesley that if he adapted it for the English stage it could not fail of success. That she was convincing of her judgment has been amply demonstrated by the reception accorded by the London public at the Globe Theatre, where it enjoyed an extended run to constantly increasing audiences.

Mr. Verneuil has for some time been recognized as one of the leading French dramatists, under the nom de plume of "Danile," and scored his greatest success in "L'Inconnu," the most important of his literary efforts. He has written some twenty-eight plays, most of them on light subjects, having a peculiar appeal to Parisians. He is now, however, since the success of "L'Inconnu," giving his attention to more serious drama.

So seldom does he take THEATRE his company outside of the studio gates to make exterior scenes, that William de Mille has become known as the director who never goes on location. Therefore it was something of an event when, during the filming of his latest Paramount production, "After the Show," which is being presented at the Capitol Theatre, he required his company to go on location. Mr. de Mille, on two separate days, packed up his camera, his megaphone, staff and pliers and went to the country to film exterior scenes for the first time in fifteen months. One reason for the infrequency of the producer's location trips is that his type of picture generally requires few exterior, and no exterior scenes, filmed except those which are vital to the story. The new picture features Jack Holt, who is appearing in the supporting cast in "After the Show." The supporting cast is unusually clever.

DOMINION He started out to be an THEATRE officer of the British merchant marine. He spent three years sailing back and forth between North and South America before the desire to act seized him. The one-time "Jack-lar" is Thomas Holding, an eminent actor, appearing prominently in the support of Elsie Ferguson in "Sacred and Profane Love." William D. Taylor's Paramount production which will be shown at the Dominion Theatre all week, Julia Crawford Ivers adapted the story from the famous Arnold Bennett novel and stage play. Conrad Nagel heads a brilliant supporting cast.

COLUMBIA The capability and versatility of Conway Tearle are being tested to the utmost in his Selznick star series pictures and his latest release, "Buckling the Tiger," which is now showing at the Columbia Theatre, presents his popular player in a character and surroundings entirely different from any of his preceding photoplay productions. Mr. Tearle is shown as the black sheep of a prominent family. He has drifted to the Klondike during a gold rush and, as in all his other ventures, he has failed. He is cynically reviewing his past when his manhood is stirred by the sight of beauty in distress. Rallying four of his companions, he outlines a desperate plan whereby they can raise a large sum of money, but which entails the death of one of the party. They fall in with the plan and play a hand of faro to see who must be sacrificed. Conway Tearle, as Richie MacDonald, is cast as the victim. He has but one year to live, and decides to make the most of his time, starting off by gambling and carousing, he later sees the folly of it all and decides to make good for the sake of the girl he has sacrificed himself for. A strange turn of events, however, give the story an unexpected twist, and the climax is reached after some most exciting and unique situations.

VARIETY "A Man's Home," playing at the Variety Theatre all this week, has proved to be one of the best bills played at this theatre, if the Victoria public are good judges. It does not take long for the Variety patrons to stamp the approval or disapproval on a picture, as the people who attend the first night soon tell their friends, and if they are pleased the theatre will be filled the remainder of the week, as is the case this week.

OLD FAVORITES IN PRINCESS THEATRE'S REOPENING CAST

Mr. Oliver Eckhardt, the new director, has arranged to keep many of the favorites of the Mildred Page playhouse. The personnel of the new company will include Miss Mina Gilbert, who was with the Mildred Page playhouse last year, and will be the leading lady. She has just come from the famous Alhambra Stock Company of San Francisco. She will have Mr. Conte as leading man. It is not necessary to make any comment regarding his career, as he is well known and was always very popular through

FRENCH ORGANIST TO APPEAR IN VICTORIA

Mr. Joseph Bonnet Will Give Recital at the Metropolitan Methodist Church on December 2

Music lovers in Victoria are to be given a treat on December 2, when Joseph Bonnet, the great French organ virtuoso, who is now on a transcontinental tour, will appear in the Metropolitan Church.

This wonderful organist was born in the city of Bordeaux, France, which is noted for the elegance and refinement of its people. His father was organist of the charming old church of St. Eulalie and all the members of his family were artists and musicians. Bonnet says that he will never forget the first time he tried the organ in his father's church—he was nine years old, but had studied the piano for several years. He seated himself on the high bench and played a little piece without fear. When he heard the rich tones going and coming through the church, he says he had a feeling that he was in paradise.

He began to study the organ with his father. When he was but fourteen years old he was appointed the organist in the church of St. Nicholas. Shortly after he went to Paris and enjoyed the tuition of Alexandre Guilmant at the Conservatoire Nationale de Musique, where he gained, with the greatest distinction, a brilliant Premier Prix for organ improvisation.

He won the celebrated post of organist at the church of St. Eustache in Paris over innumerable competitors with the unanimous vote of the jury. Joseph Bonnet has done more than anyone else to popularize the organ as a concert instrument in America, and his profound ability as a musician, together with his wit and witless taste, incomparable virtuosity and spiritual insight have won from the public the greatest ovations and a unanimous verdict of praise.

JASCHA HEIFETZ
 It reached a point last winter when it became necessary to build a stout fence around the platform occupied by Jascha Heifetz, the sensational young Russian violinist, and his concert in New York, Boston and Chicago. The fence or four hundred extra seats that were invariably sold on the stage filled so much room and the orchestra became so eager that the artist found it practically impossible to make his way through the crowd. Heifetz, who is now in Victoria, has a trick of cracking his finger joints.

IRRITATING LITTLE HABITS

It is strange, but true, that small and apparently insignificant matters often cause dissension between husbands and wives who may still recognize each other's virtues. A little irritating habit of one of the pair often leads to a lessening of affection on the part of the other.

Tolstois "Anna Karenina" shows how excessively irritated a woman may become when she has to spend her life with a man who has an unconscious automatic habit. In this case the offending husband has a trick of cracking his finger joints.

A woman of my acquaintance who married for love told me the other day that her husband's habit of adding "Rip" or "What?" to every question that he asks her is "getting badly on her nerves."

I anticipate the comment: "Such people can't be very nice in the long run." It seems almost grotesque that you or I should be unable to overlook such trivial acts of annoyance committed by one whom we honor and love. How weak, how foolish our irritation seems! We try to suppress it. We try to laugh away the annoyance.

MILLBANK

we say to ourselves. "He is a good man and I am very fond of him."

But these wretched little habits count for much in married life. They are mere pin pricks, no doubt, but when they are constant they can scarcely fail to hurt a sensitive mental skin.

"If you don't stop whistling that dreadful tune over and over again, I must really go out of the house," said a wife to her husband in my presence. I felt sincerely sorry for both of them. The man was trying artificial trout flies, and he said that whistling helped him whenever he did "a fiddling job." The poor husband's expression was pathetic as he tried with all his power of control to cease whistling.

I am inclined to think that women are more liable than men to suffer this sort of irritation and less able to make light of it. This is fortunate, because an enormous number of women have odd little nervous tricks. Watch your sisters in the train if you doubt Nagel made a most accurate observation.

Speaking for myself, and not without a sense of wonder, I could admire and respect a man who played with his moustache while he spoke words of wisdom, but on no consideration would I allow myself to imagine that I could marry him. It is very strange that we women should be so susceptible to downward faults in a man more easily than we can tolerate a provoking habit-trick—Anna Blount in Daily Mail.

Deaths Near Abbotsford
 ABBOTSFORD, B.C., Nov. 18.—William Fraser, one of the oldest residents of this settlement, was found dead at his garden gate this evening. He was 80 years old. G. E. Davis, farmer of Huntington district, died today of injuries received when he slipped under the wheels of his own wagon yesterday.

COULDN'T DO HOUSEWORK HEART WAS SO BAD

Many women get weak and run down and unable to look after their household duties owing to the heart action becoming impaired or the nervous system unstrung.

Nature intended women to be strong, healthy and happy instead of sick and wretched. But how can a woman be strong and healthy when day in and day out she has to go through the same routine of work, sweeping, dusting, cooking, washing, etc. Is it any wonder that the heart becomes affected and she gets irritable and nervous, has hot flushes, faint and dizzy spells, smothering and sinking spells and can't sleep at night?

To all women whose hearts are weak and whose nerves are unstrung we would recommend

MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS
 as the best remedy to tone up the system and strengthen the weakened organs.

Mrs. Daniel Penman, Loganville, N.S., writes:—"As I was troubled with a weak heart for nearly two years I am writing to tell you what your great remedy, Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, has done for me. I used six boxes and am completely relieved. I think they are the best remedy for heart trouble there is."

Beware of Tender Gums

Unhealthy soil kills the best of wheat. Unhealthy gums kill the best of teeth. To keep the teeth sound, keep the gums well. Watch for tender and bleeding gums. This is a symptom of Pyorrhea, which afflicts four out of five people over forty.

Pyorrhea menaces the body as well as the teeth. Not only do the gums recede and cause the teeth to decay, loosen and fall out, but the infecting Pyorrhea germs lower the body's vitality and cause many serious ills.

To avoid Pyorrhea, visit your dentist frequently for tooth and gum inspection. And use Forhan's For the Gums.

Forhan's For the Gums will prevent Pyorrhea—or check its progress, if used in time and used consistently. Ordinary dentifrices cannot do this. Forhan's will keep the gums firm and healthy, the teeth white and clean. Start using it today. If gum-shrinkage has set in, use Forhan's according to directions, and consult a dentist immediately for special treatment.

35c and 60c tubes in Canada and U.S. If your druggist cannot supply you, send price to us direct and we will mail tube postpaid.

M. IVEL SAYS HE HAS VIEWPOINT OF FARMER

Liberal Candidate Makes First Appearance — Declares Party Politics Has Returned in Canada

Mr. William M. Ivel, the Liberal standard-bearer in the Federal election here, made his bow to the voters last night at Pantages Theatre. He told them that, if elected, he would carry back to Ottawa the viewpoint of the business man and farmer.

More than 500 citizens listened to the candidate and those who helped him fire the first campaign gun. Speaker A. M. Manson, of the local House; Capt. Ian Mackenzie, M.P.; Henry C. Hall, ex-M.P.; and William Marchant, former candidate in the Alberni-Comox riding.

Proceedings were enlivened by staples orchestra.

Mr. M. D. Harbord, president of the Victoria Liberal Association, was chairman.

"Dr. Toimie," said Mr. Ivel, "is a splendid type of man, but I feel that I have just as good a character and reputation. I am a young man with all my interests in Victoria. My grandparents were as good Scotch immigrants as ever came to this country."

Mr. Ivel said he was a business man and that he could be counted on to bring the business man's viewpoint on Ottawa affairs, if elected. He declared that what Canada needed more than anything else was "a union of democratic forces," provided those forces were Liberal.

Party Government Back
Mr. Ivel said that the country might as well be prepared for party government, for it had staged a definite "come-back" and was likely to stay for awhile.

"What we have got to do," he counselled, "is defeat men of Mr. Henry Drayton's type," and he asked why men like R. F. Green, C. Peck, Calder and J. C. McIntosh were leaving the Government forces for "safe jobs." "Those men," he said, "have been in battle long enough to know the difference between political safety and danger."

Mr. Ivel said that he was well acquainted with the tariff as it affected the West, because two years' residence on the Prairies had given him the farmer's viewpoint.

He objected to the alleged commercial discrimination against the West, told about British Columbia bank funds going to Toronto for loans to the Chinese and eastbound freight rates being higher than west-bound.

Finally, he declared: "Liberalism will bring back prosperity, because we have got faith in this country, and we will build up this great country with the right sort of citizens."

Mr. Henry C. Hall, ex-M.P., said the voters had before them the choice of "the weak policies of Meighen" or "well-established Liberal principles."

Keep Out Asiatics
Liberalism, he predicted, would lift Canada out of its present stagnant condition, and putting down the bars on Oriental immigration would help.

The people of Canada are tired of three years of "tyranny," declared Captain Ian Mackenzie, second Liberal member for Vancouver. "The Dominion Government has defied the constitution ever since the armistice by staying in power."

Mr. William Marchant set out to give a humorous speech, talked about his ideas on the tariff, buried shafts of sarcasm at what he termed "Noak's Jokes," and wound up with a torrent of eloquence.

"When inconsistency went out to find advocates, it picked on Meighen and Toimie," asserted Mr. Marchant, who told about Dr. Toimie's effort to have the English cattle embargo lifted, while the Government stood for protection at home.

What Liberals Haven't Done
"What we want is a return to Laurier prosperity," he declared. "There is one thing about the Liberals, they haven't traded on the spurious cry of patriotism or waved the flag and at the same time neglected the upbuilding of trade between Canada and Great Britain. They didn't protect the provinces, speculators and patronage mongers, shouting patriotism all the time while the war was on. They didn't prostitute loyalty on the altar of avarice and greed."

Speaker A. M. Manson, of the Provincial Legislature, was the last speaker. He devoted most of his speech to a defence of the Canadian National Railways (C.N.R.), a Liberal conception, which he held, had been repeatedly hampered by the Dominion Government for political motives. He attacked the Government for its policy relative to the Prince Rupert drydock, charging that Mr. Joseph Flavelle had stood in the way of the development of that project because of its association with the Laurier regime.

OPPOSING ORGANIC CHURCH UNION MOVE
The Presbyterian Church Association Issues Manifesto Against Union With Other Churches

The local branch of the Presbyterian Church Association, which is opposed to organic union with the Congregational, Methodist and Presbyterian bodies, has issued a manifesto which is of interest. It is as follows:

We, the undersigned members of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, in view of the fact that the act of the last General Assembly in some quarters is being interpreted as a decision that the Presbyterian Church should cease its separate existence through being merged with others to form a new organization, desire to say:

(1) That the General Assembly has no constitutional power to end our church. It has the function of administration and oversight within the church, but has no power to end it. The entire membership and not the Assembly constitutes the church. If any of the officials or members of our church wish to leave it and join a new body, they have that right; but they have no right to compel others to do so who wish to remain true to the church of their fathers.

(2) We do not in any way seek to disparage or qualify any other church. People are not all of the same type and temperament, and they have a right to choose their own affiliations. Hence we can have Christian unity without uniformity. An army is a united force, but it has many regiments. The church is the army of God under one Leader, but to force it all into one regiment is contrary to sound sense.

(3) The demand for organic union on the economic ground of overlapping is not justified. There is no overlapping in the foreign mission field, and friendly co-operation at home is preventing any needless overlapping in the home field.

(4) There is no argument from Scripture or history to justify any effort for the formation of a combine of the churches. They have already a spiritual unity which is greater.

(5) Any attempt to force Presbyterian people out of the church that is endeared to them by so many sacred memories would lead to the disruption of our own great church. It is the utmost madness to split our own church in order to try to obtain an imperfect union with other people. Any attempt to compel people to forsake the Presbyterian Church when, as a matter of conscience they prefer to stay in it, contradicts the whole record of our own church, whose people in other days died as martyrs rather than he intrude to their convictions.

(6) The General Assembly in 1905 declared that "a union of the churches to be real and lasting must carry the consent of the entire membership." (Appendix p. 280). The vote of the membership taken in 1911 revealed such opposition that further action was delayed.

(7) If the adverse vote of the people in 1911 justified a stay of proceedings, surely the much stronger opposition of 1915 could not justify a consummation of organic union. And that vote stands as the last declaration of the people.

(8) It ought to be remembered that the doctrinal basis of the proposed organic union is a very meagre statement of doctrinal truth. And to make the situation worse, no minister is required to sign his adherence to it.

(9) It is quite certain that the Presbyterian Church in Canada will continue even should we decide to leave. Its motto is the "Burning Bush," "not consumed."

(10) While the organic union of the Congregational, Methodist and Presbyterian Churches is unsupported by Scripture, untrue to history, and cannot meet the requirements of our day in Canada or in the foreign field, we declare our profound conviction that a federation of all evangelical churches of the Christian Church is demanded by the interests of true religion and the Kingdom of God, and that we pledge ourselves and our influence to the promotion of such federation.

PETS ABOARD SHIP
The report that eleven black cats have already joined the Renown, prior to her departure for India with the Prince of Wales, recently sent one wondering as to the number of "ship's pets" included in the Renown's scale of complement.

The Iron Food for Vitality

Let Children Vote

Offer them plain bread or raisin bread. See which they select, and why

Some day, soon, do this: Offer raisin bread and plain bread, side by side, to your boy or girl.

Note how the little hand at once selects the bread with raisins. The flavor first attracts them—they know the deliciousness of raisins.

Unconsciously they know too that these raisins are good for them.

Every normal child craves sweets naturally, and should have them. Here are Nature's own sweets, the kind they should have—practically pre-digested and rich in vital iron.

The iron builds up healthy blood—lasting vitality for play or study. Children need but a small lot of iron daily, yet that need is vital.

Healthful foods sometimes must be forced on children. Not so raisin bread. They choose it for themselves. Just try and see.

Delicious raisin bread and raisin pie are sold by bake shops and groceries everywhere. Buy of them to save baking at home. Real Raisin Bread is made with lots of raisins. Insist on it. First-class bakers do not stint.

Use Sun-Maid Raisins, made from California's finest table grapes—American raisins, processed and packed immaculately in a great modern California plant. Seeded (seeds removed); Seedless (grown without seeds); Clusters (on the stem). Also a fine, ever-ready dessert. Raisins are cheaper by 30 per cent than formerly—see that you get plenty in your foods.

You'll gladly discard your razor of yesterday

WITH acknowledgements to your razor of yesterday for faithful service, you will gladly discard it for the 75% improvement in shaving quality brought by the New Improved Gillette.

On August 31st, 1920, the Patent Office at Ottawa granted the Gillette Safety Razor Co. a patent broadly covering the New Improved Gillette, of which the patentable features are as important and as revolutionary as those of the ordinary Gillette.

But a still greater award than that of the Patent Office has been granted by the men who have shaved with the New Improved Gillette and have given it their positive approval as the most perfect shaving instrument ever produced.

NOTE.—One of the first things to strike the user of the New Improved Gillette is its simplicity. Most men prefer to screw the handle up tight to get the most satisfactory shave.

The Gillette Blade and Gillette Razor are developed to work together. No Gillette Blade can deliver its full shaving quality unless used in a genuine Gillette Razor—built by Gillette, in the Gillette way and up to Gillette standards.

WILL ASK NEW TRIAL FOR CONVICTED MAN

Friends of Nick Semenoff, Given Three-Year Sentence for Arson, Fight to Establish His Innocence

Statements by the friends of Nick Semenoff, the Russian convicted arsonist at the recent sittings in this city, and sentenced to three years' imprisonment by Mr. Justice Murphy, that an appeal would be made to the Minister of Justice to order a new trial, were confirmed yesterday by Mr. R. C. Lowe, who was counsel for Semenoff previous to the sentence.

Mr. Lowe said that so strong were the representations made to him by these fellow-countrymen of Semenoff, and so clear did it seem that there were good grounds for making certain submissions to Mr. Justice Murphy, that he had applied to the department of the Attorney-General that he be furnished with a transcript of the report of the proceedings in the arson trial.

Mr. Lowe further said that he had informed the department of the Attorney-General that Semenoff was penniless, and his friends poor men; and that, being foreigners, it was a matter not of public policy but of the doing of justice, that these people should be assisted in their sincere attempt to establish their innocence of their fellow Russian. For this reason Mr. Lowe had strongly urged that the Province should stand the expense of providing this transcript; and this, he was informed yesterday, the department had consented to do.

Now that he was furnished with such a transcript, Mr. Lowe said that he was prepared to make a submission to the court for a new trial to Mr. Justice Murphy, who would have appealed to for his support of the application to the Minister of Justice.

Appeal to Trial Judge
Mr. Lowe explained that he was in a position to make such a submission by reason of his former acquaintance with Semenoff's affairs. At the present time, said counsel, there was pending in the County Court the trial of a claim for wages brought by Semenoff against Mrs. Olga Drayman in respect of work done on the house at Rodeck Street, Saanich, which Semenoff was convicted of burning down. Semenoff held a mechanic's lien in the sum of $175 on the house; and while that fact was brought out in evidence at the trial, there were other circumstances in connection therewith, said Mr. Lowe, which, if true, would have affected the verdict of the jury.

It seemed quite clear, continued Mr. Lowe, that Semenoff's right to give evidence in his own defence had never been clearly explained to him. Mr. Lowe recalled that, as reported at the time of the trial, Mr. P. J. Rinnell, who was asked by Mr. J. S. Brandon, counsel for the Crown, to conduct the defence of the accused, had been obliged to undertake the defence at a moment's notice; had had no opportunity of consulting his client; and had not even seen a copy of the police court depositions in the case; and that on being so informed Mr. Justice Murphy had ordered that the judge's copy should be given to counsel.

Mr. Lowe said that he was further credibly informed that Semenoff had never clearly understood that Mr. Rinnell had been appointed to act in his defence; had grown confused and resentful of what he did not understand in the proceedings; and had virtually sat as a dumb spectator of proceedings most vitally concerning himself.

Jury's Unusual Action
Mr. Lowe said that it was a matter of court record that before finding a verdict for conviction, the trial jury had returned to the courtroom, and that they thought the accused should have given evidence as to his whereabouts on the night of the fire. Mr. Justice Murphy had then said that in accordance with the law; but Mr. Lowe was confident that if the learned trial judge had been informed as to Semenoff's attitude to the proceedings it would have materially affected the procedure at the trial.

In consideration of all these facts, said Mr. Lowe, of the fact that all the evidence in the case was circumstantial; that, despite the bad blood between the accused and the Draymans, there was the strongest motive of pecuniary interest to deny Semenoff from burning down the house he had built, as to which he claimed wages owing, and on which he had a lien; that before the fire he had started a civil suit against the Draymans; that it was now highly probable that Semenoff did not understand his position at the trial; and that if he had done so he would have sustained on oath the assertions of his innocence he had always maintained; there being ground for asking the Minister of Justice to exercise the power vested in him under the Criminal Code, and to order a new trial of the case.

Convenient Tablet Form

Everyone is now familiar with the splendid results brought about by yeast in treating such skin troubles as pimples, boils, blackheads, etc. But there were thousands of people who could not eat common baking yeast, due to its disagreeable taste, who remained in a state of chronic skin trouble, until they found a way in which yeast could be taken in tablet form. The result of their research in Ironized Yeast, which is the approved vitamin tonic treatment.

People everywhere are now taking Ironized Yeast and the results reported are almost unbelievable. Not only does it clear up the complexion, it brings equally remarkable results in restoring vitality, nervousness, weakness, poor appetite and other symptoms of general debility. Even after the first few days people say they notice decidedly beneficial effects from Ironized Yeast.

This is because Ironized Yeast is rich in vitamins, which have been found absolutely essential to good health.

URGE FAIR PLAY OR RESIGNATION

Dinadale and A. M. Aitken, follows: "Your special committee have given consideration to the resolution of the City Council, of the 14th inst., re Municipal-Provincial matters."

"Your committee is of the opinion that the present special session of the Provincial Legislature, called for the purpose of fairly adjusting revenue problems between Provincial and municipal authorities, has, so far, failed in its purpose."

"Your committee is further of the opinion that, added to the Government's great borrowings during the past five years of some forty millions of dollars, the enormous increase in Provincial expenditure, from $2,331,740.35 in the fiscal year 1916-17, to a proposed total of over $11,000,000 for the 1922-23 term, are circumstances calculated to give alarm to every citizen of British Columbia, and indicate a course of extravagance which, if persisted in, will lead to the bankruptcy of the Province."

"It is recommended:—That the Victoria City Council support the attitude of the executive of the Union of B.C. Municipalities, as expressed before the Municipal Committee of the Legislature, on the 11th inst."

"The following resolution is recommended to the Council:

"Whereas the present session of the Provincial Legislature was called for the specific purpose of fairly adjusting revenue problems between Provincial and municipal authorities;

"And whereas, so far this session has failed in its avowed purpose;

"Therefore be it resolved that this Council call on the other municipalities throughout British Columbia to join in demanding justice or the resignation of the Government."

Petition Every District

"And that the Mayor be requested to forward a copy of this self-explanatory report and resolution to every municipal council throughout the Province, for such early action as each of the said councils may consider proper."

"And that copies be ordered forwarded, by the city clerk, to the four Provincial representatives of the City of Victoria."

Alderman A. E. Todd, chairman of the special committee, moved adoption of the report and the resolution it contained.

"The action which the Council is being asked to take is of a very grave nature," said Alderman Todd. "It is a serious thing, indeed, for the City Council of the Capital City of a Province to feel it necessary to criticize and condemn so severely its Provincial Government."

"There is much that might be said, but to do so would only be traveling over the same ground that has been covered by speakers on this and other occasions, and during the past few years. The Council would be weary to do so, for the Council members thoroughly understand the matter and the circumstances that have led to the present situation."

Squandered and Wasted

"One phase of the whole subject, however, he touched upon for a moment, and it is this: Not only are the municipalities being despoiled by the present Government, but, despite the enormous increase in Provincial taxation, published statements show that in the unorganized districts expenditure upon essential public works has been pared to the bone. In Provincial expenditure on roads and bridges it is stated that there has been curtailment averaging far over a million dollars a year. Where are the Government's great revenues going? Can common sense suggest any other answer but 'squandered and wasted'?"

"In moving the adoption of the resolution and report, I have nothing more to say. I do not think that this City Council has met here today for debate. I know that the members of this council, composed of men of all shades of political affiliations, have arrived at a decision, and the terms in which that decision shall be expressed is the matter now before you."

Alderman Dinadale objected to the demand for resignation, asserting that "it would be just as bad if another bunch were in power." He said the present Government had not initiated the projects that were proving a burden to the Provincial treasury.

"If you want to discuss the P. G. E., everyone knows that the Government borrowed nearly $50,000,000, but that doesn't account for the enormous increase in taxation," said Alderman Todd. "There is only one conclusion to reach, and that is that the Government has squandered and wasted its revenues, and it is quite obvious that the organized districts have been neglected in Provincial appropriations."

"The Honorable Government started it," persisted Alderman Dinadale, but he got no support.

Snipe at Ald. Aitken

When Alderman A. M. Aitken questioned the wisdom of "such drastic action," he drew the fire of the Mayor and several aldermen, who sniped at him as he argued for the adoption of a more moderate tone in the resolution.

"Perhaps this report is true," he began.

"It is quite the truth," no doubt about that," remarked the Mayor. "Perhaps Mr. Hart was right when he said the City of Victoria has wasted money," proceeded Alderman Aitken, but Alderman Sanster cut him short by shooting questions at him.

The Mayor finally ordered leavey for him. "You ought to give him a chance," said the Mayor.

When Alderman Aitken resumed, City Comptroller James L. Hayman dropped a pen on the table, and the alderman wheeled around at him suddenly.

"What's the matter?" he demanded. "Don't you like what I'm saying?"

"Nothing's the matter," replied Mr. Hayman. "I haven't said a thing."

Alderman Aitken had hardly got started again when calls for a division became audible, and the Mayor asked for a vote. Only Alderman Aitken and Dinadale registered in the negative.

The Mayor and aldermen adjourned to the Mayor's office to discuss in camera a proposal to confer with members of the Opposition in the Legislature. It was finally decided not to meet the members, as the conference might indicate that the Council was playing politics.

VICTORIA SUED BY SAANICH COUNCILLOR

Mr. Kingwell Alleges That Flood Waters From Elk Lake Waterworks Overlooked His Property

Alleging that waters allowed to escape from the old city waterworks at Elk Lake had overflowed the Colquitz River, and flooded eight acres of his and adjoining, on May 4 last, with the result that he was unable to plough or seed the land at all this year; Mr. Eric G. Kingwell, returned soldier settler and Saanich councillor, began a damage action against the City of Victoria, before Mr. Justice Gregory in the Supreme Court yesterday.

The case for the plaintiff is in the hands of Messrs. F. A. McDiarmid and N. H. McDiarmid, City Solicitors. H. S. Pringle is appearing for the city.

The case for the plaintiff, as presented by the opening statement of counsel, and in the evidence of the plaintiff himself and several of his neighbors, was that in January, 1920, the plaintiff, a returned soldier, purchased land on the banks of the Colquitz, about half a mile south of the river's outlet from Elk Lake, from the Soldiers' Settlement Board.

On May 4 last, a sudden rush of water down the bed of the Colquitz, it was testified, caused the flooding of eight acres of the plaintiff's land. The weather had been rainy, and there was no reason except a sudden release of waters to account for the flooding. The land was ready for ploughing, and arrangements to plough had been made, but the flood waters stood until well into June, and even in the early days of July, said Mr. Kingwell, it was still impossible to plough eight acres of the land. The plaintiff estimated his gross loss by this flooding, on land which he had intended for roots and stags, at $2,500.

City's Negligence Alleged

Mr. McDiarmid, Mr. Kingwell alleged, and afterwards adduced evidence to the effect that the city was responsible for the erection of dams and floodgates at the southern end of Elk Lake. Mr. McDiarmid said that the economy of the City Council was responsible for the fact that a caretaker who used to be constantly on the ground to release the impounded waters gradually was now only sent out to Elk Lake once a week or so, and it was now attempted to do in one day what used to be spread over a week.

Mr. Kingwell was corroborated in his testimony by Frederick G. Quick, the former owner of his land, who said that the land flooded was drained, and was fit to plough immediately preceding the flood. Messrs. W. H. Green and T. E. Halsor, neighbors of the plaintiff, said that their lands had also been damaged by the flood; and Mr. Halsor said that he had complained to the City Council about the damage.

City's Defence Outlined

In a brief preliminary statement, Mr. Pringle intimated that the defence of the city would be that if the flood waters could be shown to have come through the valves of the city's dam, the flooding was caused by the unauthorized action of strangers who had opened the valves, and that the city was not responsible therefor.

Mr. Justice Gregory said at the outset of the trial that, without prejudging the case, it would seem to be a highly technical matter, and one that properly could be only estimated by trained engineers. Counsel informed the court that the evidence of engineers would be adduced. The trial will be continued today, and an attempt will be made to conclude it, the learned judge announcing that he would preside in the Vancouver Assizes Court next week.

CHEMINUS NOTES

CHEMINUS, Nov. 14.—The Agnes Keyser Chapter, I. O. D. E., Poppy tag day last Friday was a great success. The ladies were abroad very early and did such a roaring trade with their poppies that several of them had to go home and make more. The ladies who did the tagging were: Mrs. B. Jarrett, Mrs. J. Inglis, Mrs. Ross, Mrs. Fryer, Mrs. H. D. Porter, Mrs. Reed, Mrs. Tynes, Miss (Greta) Dunne, the Misses Cathart, the Misses Porter and others. The sum realized was $254. The greater part of it will go to the Canadian National War Memorial Fund.

The Cheminus War Memorial will be unveiled on Monday next at 2 o'clock. At a meeting of the memorial committee last Saturday it was decided to make over the memorial to the care of the Sister Agnes Keyser Chapter, I. O. D. E., feeling that it could be safely left to them to look after and care for it for all time.

Cheminus was well represented on Armistice Day when the Cowichan District War Memorial was unveiled. On behalf of the district, Mr. Keyser, Chapter I. O. D. E., Mrs. James Cathart, second vice-regent, placed a lovely wreath on the base of the memorial.

Several good deer were brought in at the weekend. Arthur Howe, Jr., got a four-pronged buck.

Deer are plentiful but pheasants are getting very scarce. Fishing is still excellent. Some very fine grilse were caught with the spoon last week.

PREFERENCE TO SALMON

Other Things Being Equal, British Admiralty Will Specify Provincial Product

Honorable William Sloan, Provincial Commissioner of Fisheries, has received a cable from Mr. F. C. Wade, Agent-General for British Columbia, London, to the effect that the British Admiralty has made no specifications as to where it should come from. Therefore it is considered that Mr. Wade has secured a very valuable concession for the industry of British quality equal, the preference will be given the product of British Columbia.

Notification of this decision has been given the British Columbia Cannery Association, and that organization already has taken steps necessary to obtain the fullest possible advantage for the canned salmon of British Columbia. It will be recalled that the pink salmon of British Columbia obtained a reputation for excellence during the war, when a large quantity was forwarded by the Government as a gift to the British Government for the use of the armies in France.

Official and unofficial letters of appreciation were received by the Provincial Fisheries Department, it being unanimously declared that the pink salmon of this Province was an exceedingly fine and high-class food. Heretofore the British Admiralty in buying salmon has made no specifications as to where it should come from. Therefore it is considered that Mr. Wade has secured a very valuable concession for the industry of British Columbia, and he is being commended and congratulated by the British Columbia Cannery Association on the success of his efforts.

Mr. Wade's cablegram reads as follows: "Have secured Admiralty assurance pink salmon will be specified for the navy requirements, and price and quality being equal, preference given British Columbia."

MEETING OF NANAIMO COUNCIL OF WOMEN

Prominent Officers Attended and Received Addresses on Work of the Order

NANAIMO, Nov. 16.—The Nanaimo Local Council of Women was visited by two distinguished members of the body yesterday afternoon, when Mrs. G. Brown, Machinery Street, lent her home to receive, on behalf of the Local Council, Mrs. S. D. Scott, provincial vice-president, and Mrs. White, president of the Vancouver Local Council of Women. Both ladies attended the national convention at Calgary last summer, the former in provincial official capacity, while the latter spoke for Nanaimo as well as Vancouver. Mrs. Scott took occasion to thank the speakers for their presence, and called upon Mrs. S. D. Scott to read her report, which dealt chiefly with departmental work. Mrs. Scott opened her remarks with a few expressions of gratitude for the splendid reception accorded the visitors, and the valuable contribution which helped to make it possible for her to attend, with four other delegates from British Columbia, one of the most wonderful conventions ever held, and which was representative of four hundred and fifty thousand women throughout the world.

The idea of a Local Council of Women was first suggested by Lady Aberdeen, who at one time was opposed to a Provincial Council. It was through the untiring efforts of Mrs. Day, of Victoria, that the provincial body became a recognized institution, a link between the National and Local Councils, from which all resolutions will in future be presented to the Government. There is now a Provincial Council in every Province of the Dominion. In all departmental work the Western Provinces were ahead of other councils, and especially so in the department of law for the better protection of women and children. In legal status the women of British Columbia are in the lead, many women occupying positions of trust and responsibility on public boards. Vancouver and Victoria are the only cities in Canada which have women on a board for combating venereal diseases.

Pictures and Loyalty
The moving picture film, which has come to stay, and objectionable printed matter, were included on nearly every report submitted. The United States urged Canada to work for a higher standard of production for the former, it being suggested to have leading business men, clergy and professors of universities, as well as women to form a board of censors. It was generally conceded advisable to prevent the entry into Canada of anti-British, sensational and immoral literature. Last year on this particular item alone Canada paid the United States $1,000,000 in exchange. Other subjects treated were home economics, exchange of teachers, revision of text books, citizenship, and immigration. Loyalty to the Empire and the flag should be taught in the public schools, much stress being laid on wandering to attention when the National Anthem was played or sung. All present were deeply interested and showed much delight when Mrs. White rose to speak and told them that in Denmark men were forced to pay their wives a wage for service rendered around the home. Laughter and a hearty handclasp followed. She told of many social pleasures which they enjoyed after the convention was over, among them being a reception at the home of Senator and Lady Loughborough, with five hundred guests in attendance, and a half hour prayer service previous to opening each day, and of many other matters.

Sooke District News

SOOKE, Nov. 16.—The "Get-Together" social evening, which has been instituted at the Sooke Hall every Tuesday is proving very enjoyable, and with few exceptions, is being heartily supported by everybody in the district. On Tuesday last, November 15, there was a large and representative crowd. Progressive whist was commenced at 8 o'clock and the games continued until 10 p.m. The first ladies' bridge was won by Mrs. Harry Hooke, being a box of handkerchiefs. First gentleman's prize was awarded to Mr. Pete McLeh, a large tin of tobacco, whilst Charles Barbour, Jr., carried off the booty, prize. Refreshments were then served under the able direction of Mrs. P. Grainger with the assistance of several ladies and Mr. Walter Liddell. Some very beautiful cakes had been donated for the evening and were much appreciated. Dancing commenced at 10:30 and continued until midnight. Mrs. Harry Vogel, of Otter Point, kindly supplying the music. The Sooke Athletic Association is grateful for all the help it has received week by week with the music graciously given and for the splendid support the people of Sooke and Otter Point are giving to this evening, which has been inaugurated, not with the idea of making money, but in order to give the people as good a time as possible under the auspices of the association. It is hoped that the admission charges of 50c for men and for ladies a cake, may be reduced through this social evening attracting larger numbers each week.

Alterations at Hall

By kind permission of Mr. W. R. Charter, the Sooke Athletic Association is entirely removing the old ceiling and raising it six feet. This work is all being done by voluntary labor and the association is much indebted to Mr. Harry Vogel and Messrs. Stouck, of Otter Point, who have come forward and assisted in this work. Visiting basketball teams this season will much appreciate this improvement to the hall. Ample notice will be posted prior to the opening match, which it is hoped will be played early in December.

Development Association

On Monday evening, November 14, the regular monthly meeting of the Sooke Harbor Development Association was held in the Sooke Hall, the president, John A. Murray, J. P., being in the chair. The minutes of previous meeting having been read and passed, correspondence was next dealt with from the Minister of Public Works in relation to patrolmen upon the main Sooke Road, and gratification was expressed that Mr. John Doran had been put upon that section from the 17 Mile House to the Sooke River bridge for this system of repair work upon the road during the winter was more than a justified expenditure when in the hands of efficient men, as it saved many hundreds of dollars being spent in the spring, and kept the road in very fair shape for traffic during the winter.

A letter from the Superintendent of Postal Services, Vancouver, was also read and filed in reference to the daily mail service to and from Sooke, which is to commence on the first day of January, 1922. Recommendations with regard to the crab fishing industry of Sooke Harbor were then dealt with and a resolution forwarded to the Hon. Minister of Marine and Fisheries, Ottawa, also one in relation to the regrettable use of live bait by Orientals along the Coast in line fishing for cod and other fish, which practice of using live bait was rapidly reducing the number of fish in the waters, according to the report recently sent in to this association.

The next matter taken up was the need for a public cemetery for the Sooke Harbor and Otter Point districts. After considerable discussion as to sites, the matter of finance was taken up and quite a nice sum was promised towards a site to be secured later by those present. It was also decided to canvass the district for funds within the next week or so and the matter would then be dealt with at the next meeting of the association, which would again be in the form of a public meeting. The following consented to underwrite the canvass: Messrs. John A. Murray, W. Miller Higgs, Charles Morris and Dr. Richard Felton.

CUMBERLAND COURT HEARS LIQUOR CASES

Results of Raids Made in District During Last Week—Some Sensation Caused by Evidence in One Trial

CUMBERLAND, B.C., Nov. 17.—The cases following the raid last week by the dry squad and Provincial police, where several places were searched and liquor and beer discovered, were heard today. Liddell and Webster pleaded guilty to having beer on their premises, and were each fined $75 and costs.

One of the most sensational climaxes ever witnessed in a British Columbia court of law came at the end of the cases against Geo. Neil, of Union Bay, and Hilda Johnson, who runs a road house, who were charged with selling liquor. The chief witnesses for the prosecution were George Mars and Wheeler, employed by the Liquor Board, and they were subjected to a lengthy and grilling examination at the hands of J. Edward Bird, of Vancouver, who assisted Mr. Harrison for the defence. Their evidence was discredited. Mars was the last witness called to the stand, and after denying several statements he finally admitted that he gave false evidence. He was denounced by Mr. Bird, who then sat down, bringing the examination to a sensational end.

A. Leighton, of Nanaimo, prosecuting attorney, was asked for an adjournment to Friday morning without bail.

A warrant was later sworn out for the arrest of Wheeler, charged with perjury. Mars' evidence will be used against him.

TWENTY-FIVE INJURED IN CHICAGO COLLISION

CHICAGO, Nov. 17.—Twenty-five persons were injured, two of them probably fatally, shortly before 9 o'clock this morning, when two five-car elevated trains, bound downtown from the West Side, were wrecked in a rear-end collision at the Crawford Avenue station on the Oak Park line.

JAMES ISLAND NOTES

JAMES ISLAND, Nov. 15.—Mr. Thomas Booth, the Liberal candidate for the Federal House, held a meeting in the Assembly Hall last Saturday evening. Owing to Friday and Saturday being holiday days, the audience was rather small. Mr. R. H. Lyons supported Mr. Booth as chairman.

Mrs. R. H. Lyons entertained about forty guests to tea at her home last Thursday afternoon. Large bowls of Yellow chrysanthemums and mauve cosmos were arranged about the dining room. Mrs. Lyons was assisted by Mrs. E. Whalen, Mrs. A. Dakin, and Mrs. J. Van Norman.

Mr. J. Robb and Mr. G. Robb spent the week-end at Duncan as the guest of their sister, Mrs. A. Lyons. Mr. G. Richards has returned home from a hunting trip spent around Nanaimo and District. Mr. W. Rowbotham and Mr. E. Nickle left here on Monday night for Vancouver. They expect to return home some time next week. The usual weekly whist drive was held last night. There was a very small crowd present owing to there being some very important work to be done on just now. The committee has decided to change the night to Friday, the next drive to be held on Nov. 25.

Mr. W. Armstrong has gone to Kamloops, being called there by the death of his sister, Mrs. J. R. Michell, wife of Mr. John Michell, of the Kamloops Hardware Co., last Friday morning. The late Mrs. Michell was well known in the old days in Saanich, having lived there with her parents. She left for Kamloops thirty-three years ago, and has resided there ever since. The funeral took place at Kamloops.

The card party held in Institute Hall by the Deep Cove Social Club on Monday evening was a great success. There were 14 tables of whist players, the winners being Mrs. L. Paterson, first ladies, and Mr. A. Downey, first gentlemen's. Consolation prizes were given to Mr. Rod. Simpson and Mrs. Lindsey. Mr. Lewis, assisted by Mr. R. Jackson, arranged the card tables. At the conclusion of the game the gentlemen served refreshments to the ladies. The next social will be held next Monday evening.

MOOSE INITIATION

NANAIMO, Nov. 14.—At a meeting of the Local Order of Moose held last night a Ladies' Legion of the Order was formed with an opening membership of forty-eight who were initiated into the mysteries of the Order. Mrs. Wm. Thorne was organist of the Ladies' Legion, and reported that she had procured for membership fifty-three ladies. Dictator Kirkbride presided at the initiation ceremony, after which the following officers were elected: P. Regent, Mrs. Kirkbride; Senior Regent, Mrs. Stephenson; Junior Regent, Mrs. Vance; Chaplain, Mrs. Muir, Jr.; Recorder, Mrs. Thorne; Treasurer, Mrs. White; Guide, Mrs. B. Jackson; Sentinel, Mrs. Jenkinson; Argus, Mrs. Devlin.

Following the installation it was announced that there would be a further initiation two weeks later. An adjournment was then taken to the banquet room, where a splendid supper had been provided by the Moose Lodge, at which about a hundred sat down. A most enjoyable concert programme was rendered, to which the following contributed: Mrs. Dunmore, T. Lewis, Bro. Simpson, Mrs. Muir, Bro. Kirkbride, W. English, Mrs. F. Cooper, Mrs. Barras.

MR. DICKIE IS GIVEN ROUSING RECEPTION

Ward Two, Saanich, Greets Unionist Candidate at Well-Attended Rally—Mr. E. E. Miller Defends Government

An enthusiastic gathering of Ward Two, Saanich, residents greeted Mr. C. H. Dickie, the National Liberal and Conservative party's standard bearer in the Nanaimo riding, at a Unionist rally Wednesday night in St. Mark's Hall. The candidate was in splendid form, and was the recipient of a hearty vote of confidence, followed by lusty cheers at the end of the meeting. Mr. J. Jones acted as chairman.

The electors of the ward were out in large numbers, and throughout the meeting the two principal speakers were frequently applauded. Several in the audience also addressed the meeting, promising the support of the district to Mr. Dickie, who they said had "gained the respect and confidence of the electorate."

Mr. Dickie was heartily cheered upon rising to speak. He outlined his position in regard to the tariff question, and asked for the endorsement of all who wished for prosperity to continue in Canada in the future. The speaker declared that he supported Premier Meighen's policy of moderate protection, maintaining that it was the only policy that Canada could adopt with reasonable safety today.

Sympathies With Labor
The candidate expressed his sympathy with the labor man in regard to present unemployment conditions.

He said that he would do all in his power to bring capital and labor closer together, and believed that capital could be controlled. Industries should be given a chance, he thought.

Pointing out the seriousness of the Oriental problem, Mr. Dickie declared that he would do everything possible, if elected, to see that they were driven out of the country and prevented from entering Canada, no matter what enemies he might make by so doing. (Applause) "While men cannot compete with them, and we must find our own men jobs, even if we have to get rid of the Japanese and Chinese," he declared.

"I am willing to admit that Japan did help us during the war, and I don't wish to embarrass them in any way, but I think it is a crying shame to see men, born and raised in this country, idle on the streets, while the Orientals continue to hold down jobs which the white men could fill equally as well, if not better," said the speaker, amid applause.

Would Aid Disabled Soldiers
The speaker asserted that the disabled men should have everything

Proven best for babies necessary so that they could pass their remaining days in comfort. He said he would do everything possible towards that end. "This country has done more for the returned men than any other country," pointed out Mr. Dickie, who believed that it was in the best interests of ex-service men if they worked out their own salvation.

Mr. Dickie referred to the name of the Unionist party. Owing to the policy of Mr. Wilfrid Laurier in the "hour of danger," many lifelong Liberals deserted him in order that Canada could take her necessary part in the great struggle, he said. Many of the Liberals do not believe that Mr. Mackenzie King is the "man of the hour," and therefore they have aligned themselves with the present Government, who have thus adopted the name of the National Liberal and Conservative Party.

"Give Premier Meighen and his administration another term," Mr. Dickie urged his hearers. "The party that carried Canada successfully through the disastrous war surely ought to be given the opportunity of leading her back to safety and peace during these trying days of reconstruction."

Mr. E. E. Miller Lauds Candidate

Mr. E. E. Miller spoke on behalf of Mr. Dickie's candidature. He referred to the candidate as a plain, ordinary business man, who was respected by everyone. He said that he had heard a labor man, who had worked for Mr. Dickie, recently make the following remark: "I have been in Mr. Dickie's employ for fourteen years, and I say with all earnestness that there is no finer man living."

The speaker criticized the Liberals for trying to claim that the tariff question was but a small issue today. And yet, he said, the Liberal party made the tariff resolution in their platform practically the chief plank. "I want to tell you that the tariff during the last five years has been smaller than that imposed during the last five years of the Laurier regime," declared Mr. Miller.

He spoke of the Liberal charges of ruthless expenditure. The Meighen Government is not a reckless administration when finances are considered, for the cost of the civil service and administration of the country is very little more now than it was before the war. "Compare the figures with the various Provincial Liberal Governments, and what do you find? The Federal Government will stand a favorable comparison in every instance," he claimed.

The Safe, Safe Policy

Contrasting the Meighen policy of moderate protection for the smaller industries against the indefinite assurances of Mackenzie King and the reciprocity desires of Crerar, Mr. Miller declared amid applause, that there was only one thing that Canadians could safely do, and that was to adopt the safe, sane, clear-cut doctrine of Premier Meighen.

"I am confident that when the votes are counted on December 6 that Mr. Dickie will be returned at the head of the poll, and that there will be more Liberals in the constituency who cast their ballot for him than for Mr. Booth, the Liberal candidate," Mr. Miller said.

Several musical numbers were interspersed throughout the address. Vocal solos were rendered by Mrs. Barraclough, Mr. George Guy and Mr. Wood. A hearty vote of thanks was passed to those assisting.

How Fat Actress Was Made Slim

Many stage people now depend entirely upon Marmol Prescription Tablets for dieting and controlling fat. One clever actress tells that the reduction and gain of weight by using this new form of the famous Marmol Prescription Tablets several times a year, keeps her weight just right. All good druggists have Marmol Prescription Tablets at one dollar for a case, or if you prefer you can send them direct from the Marmol Co., 4113 Woodward Ave., Detroit, Mich. If you have not tried them, do so. They are harmless and effective. (Advt.)

danger!

Canada has a momentous decision to make.

In no previous election has there been a more vital, clean-cut issue affecting the future of every individual Canadian and indeed the future of the Country.

The people are asked to decide between Reasonable Protection and Free Trade, between continued Prosperity and economic Ruin.

Everyone should look the facts squarely in the face—free from partisan bias or class prejudice—for as YOU vote so must YOU accept the consequences of your vote.

On the one hand there is the unassailable truth that Canada has enjoyed PROSPERITY during the past half century, due entirely to its policy of upholding a reasonable protective tariff, and to the diligence and industry of its people.

In view of present world-wide conditions of Uncertainty, Unrest, and Unemployment—the inevitable aftermath of War—Protection is needed today more than ever before. In fact, Protection, coupled with unflinching courage by the People and a strong, stable Government is the only hope Canada has of emerging from the crisis with its strength and economic liberty unimpaired.

Under Free Trade the Canadian dollar would depreciate still more, Canadian industries would be driven to the United States, thousands of Canadian men and women would be deprived of their employment, and the Canadian farmer would lose his home market.

At this critical time Canada should vote for a leader who knows where he is going and why.

Deep-Seated Abscess in the Hip.

Remarkable Recovery after undergoing three operations without success.

Our Patient is Mr. ARNOLD, of Mill's Mill, Withyham, Sussex, England, who writes:—

"I am writing to tell you of the benefit I have received from your Clarke's Blood Mixture. I had a deep-seated abscess in my hip and leg and had three operations, but I was no better, so I used to come home. I had been home three weeks still feeling very ill, so I thought I would try your Clarke's Blood Mixture. The first bottle I used fetched the pus out more than ever, and by the time I had taken half the second bottle I began to feel better, and the discharge began to get less. I persevered with the Mixture, and after a few more bottles got about a little on crutches out of doors. Then I began to feel stronger, and now I am quite well. I have done for years. The abscess is quite healed—I cannot do any work and walk quite a long distance with a stick. I am sure of people suffering the same as I was would give Clarke's Blood Mixture a fair trial, it would do them good. You can make wherever you see like of this letter."

CLARKE'S BLOOD MIXTURE, by reason of its remarkable blood-purifying properties, can be called upon to give speedy relief and lasting benefit in cases of Eczema, Red Legs, Abscesses, Ulcers, Bad Sores, Rheumatism, Piles, Glandular Swellings, Haemorrhoids, Scabs, Corns, Ringworms, and all skin and blood diseases.
